COMPLAINANTS

v.

Insight Phone

DEFENDANT

Insight's Answer To The Commission Staff's First Data Request

Comes the Defendant, Insight Phone, by and through counsel, and for its Answer to the Commission Staff's First Data Request states as follows:

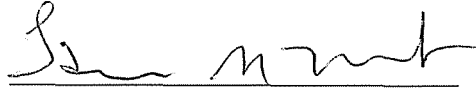

1. Can you identify the carrier or provider to whom the international number allegedly dialed from Complainants' household is assigned? If yes, is the number assigned to a residential, commercial, or wireless account?

ANSWER: Insight handed the calls to AT&T and cannot identify the carrier used by AT&T. Insight does not know if the call went to a residential, commercial or wireless account, but can provide the number to the Commission if the Commission wishes to call it. Marian Wright of Insight provided the information for this Answer.

2. Is Insight aware of any malicious attacks, either by phone or computer, that might have generated these calls?

ANSWER: Insight is not aware of any "malicious attacks" that could generate these calls. Insight's records only indicate that the calls originated from the Schiess's number. Marian Wright of Insight provided the information for this Answer.
