ATTORNEY GENERAL'S RESPONSE TO
LWC'S MOTION TO SCHEDULE INFORMAL CONFERENCE

The Attorney General, through counsel, notes that he will seek to participate in any informal conference the Commission may order.¹ Nonetheless, the Attorney General notes that he is, among other things, working on his Brief. Consequently, he respectfully requests that (if a conference is ordered) the date for holding the conference be a date after Thursday, 20 March 2008.

¹ While the Attorney General will respond to any additional requests for information the Commission may authorize, Mr. Rubin's participation in any informal conference (under the assumption that Mr. Rubin does not have a scheduling conflict) is a discretionary decision for the Attorney General. Mr. Rubin's position was disclosed through pre-filed testimonies. He has responded to pre-hearing data requests, and he was subject to cross-examination during the evidentiary hearing. The basis for Mr. Rubin's assumptions and calculations is of record.

Respectfully submitted,

GREGORY D. STUMBO
ATTORNEY GENERAL
