COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

ROBERT S. STROTHER)

COMPLAINANT)
)
V.)	CASE NO. 2007-00415
)
AT&T COMMUNICATIONS OF THE) SOUTH CENTRAL STATES, INC.)
)
DEFENDANT)

O R D E R

On September 13, 2007, Complainant, Robert S. Strother, filed a complaint, alleging that Defendant, AT&T Communications of the South Central States, Inc. ("AT&T"), overbilled him for long-distance calls over a 6-year period. Currently, the Commission has taken the matter under submission regarding AT&T's request for dismissal of the complaint.

Prior to initiating this proceeding, Mr. Strother lodged an informal complaint with the Commission's Division of Consumer Services raising the same allegations as those in his filed complaint. Mr. Strother further provided the Division of Consumer Services certain documents relating to his claims. These documents are substantive and may impact AT&T's request for dismissal.

The Commission finds that the documents appended hereto as Appendix A should be placed in the official case file. The Commission also finds that parties should be afforded an opportunity to object to their inclusion into the record.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. The documents attached hereto as Appendix A shall be made part of the official record of this proceeding.

2. Parties shall have 10 days to submit written objections to the Commission's inclusion of these documents into the official record of these proceedings.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 5th day of February, 2008.

By the Commission

ATTEST:

Executive Director

Dear Gentlemen:

It has come to my attention this week that my law firm has for over the last six years been paying a rate of eighty-nine cents a minute for long distance service. It is my understanding that the present rate is seven point five cents a minute.

This difference in rates is unconscionable and can not be justified by AT&T. Through advertising, phone solicitation and representation a reasonable person could assume that rates were standard and competitive. The differential in the rates is 1000%.

The policy of AT&T has cost my firm thousands of dollars and leaves me furious over the situation; to the point where I will commence legal proceedings on my own behalf or perhaps a class action if suitable reimbursement is not forthcoming. If this is not fraudulent, then it is certainly borderline.

If you have any questions or comments, please advise.

Sincerely,

ROBERT S. STROTHER

Dear Mr. Strother:

The AT&T Executive Offices did receive a request from you. AT&T strives to meet the concerns of all customers, and we would like to thank you for taking the time to contact us.

Several attempts to reach you by telephone have been unsuccessful. After reviewing your request, we can issue a credit of 6 months for the re-rate of the bills. I cannot adjust for 6 years. This is against policy. After reviewing the old bill, you did not call us when the rates went up. The plan you were on had discounts that expired unless the discounts were renewed. It is illegal for AT&T to add programs on the customer's bills without the customer's permission.

In the future, should you have any further concerns, you may visit our AT&T online website: www.att.com/customercare, or contact us at our email address: attbill@att.com
Or call us at 1-800-222-0400.
