KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY'S FIRST DATA REQUESTS TO COMPLAINANT

In accordance with the Kentucky Public Service Commission's ("Commission") Order of July 9, 2008 in the above-captioned proceeding, Kentucky Utilities Company ("KU" or the "Company") respectfully submits the following data requests to Complainant Jim Devers in this matter. Pursuant to that Order, responses to these Requests are due on or before August 1, 2008.

1. State whether you contend that KU has failed to bill you in accordance with its filed tariffs or the Commission's administrative regulations. If you do so contend, then state with specificity each and every fact on which you claim the Commission should rely to find that KU has failed to bill you in accordance with its tariffs or the Commission's administrative regulations, and produce all documents and other evidence which you claim supports such contention.

RESPONSE:

2. State whether you contend that the electric meter for the property in question was in any way defective or failed to record actual usage of electricity, or that the meter was improperly read on one or more occasion. If you do so contend, then state with specificity each and every fact on which you claim the Commission should rely to find that the meter was defective, failed to record actual usage, or was improperly read, and produce all documents and other evidence which you claim supports such contention.

RESPONSE:

Dated: July 17, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
