

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE KENTUCKY PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION
Case No. 2009-00020

In the matter of:

MR. AND MRS. JAMES RIDDICK,

V.

COMPLAINANTS

AMERICAN ELECTRIC POWER,
KENTUCKY POWER,
GRAYSON RURAL ELECTRIC,

DEFENDANTS

ANSWER OF GRAYSON RURAL ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE CORPORATION

RECEIVED

FEB 13 2009

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Comes now the Defendant, Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, and for its answer to the complaint and pursuant to the Order entered herein January 30, 2009, states as follows:

1. The Answering Defendant believes that the complaint of the Complainants fails to state a cause of action against this Defendant necessitating a dismissal of same. .
2. The complaint and the attachments referred to in the complaint do not constitute a sufficient factual basis for the Commission to exercise jurisdiction over this Defendant.
3. The complaint and the attachments to the complaint set forth no allegation against Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation and only asserts that Grayson Rural Electric notified the Complainants that their request for service was in an area that was, according to the certified territory map located within the service territory of American Electric Power.

4. The Defendant, Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation further states that approximately September 9, 2008, a representative of Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation met with the Complainants and a representative of American Electric Power concerning the Complainants request for service. During that discussion it was clear and it was understood by a representative of Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative that all other persons understood the area was clearly within the certified service territory of American Electric Power. The representative of American Electric Power indicated that service would be provided as requested. There has been no contact with Grayson Rural Electric since that time.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant, Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, having fully answered herein prays that the complaint be dismissed and the Complainants take nothing thereunder with respect to this Defendant, Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

W. JEFFREY SCOTT, PSC
