RE: Application of Kentucky Utilities Company for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity Authorizing KU to Bid on a Franchise Established by the City of Loretto

Dear Mr. DeRouen:

Enclosed please find an original and 10 copies of an Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity ("CCN"), to enable Kentucky Utilities Company (the "Company") to apply for an electric franchise with the City of Loretto (the "City") pursuant to KRS 278.020(4). In a regular session held on May 15, 2009, the City Council of Loretto, Kentucky passed Ordinance No. 1-09, which directed the advertising for bids and selling of an electric franchise in the City. We respectfully ask for an order granting the CCN by October 20, 2009 to enable KU to bid on the franchise on the sale date of October 20, 2009.

For many years, the Company has been the owner of a franchise granted by the City to erect facilities for providing electric service to the City and the inhabitants thereof. The franchise to be obtained will replace the previous franchise.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Allyson K. Sturgeon

Charlie Osbourn, Miller took the checks and cashed them both at Springfield State Bank, but never delivered tickets or advertising to Downs. Two other checks were also written to Miller from Downs for advertising in previous years, and the total amount allegedly taken was $3,600, according to the police report.

Downs said he became suspicious a while back when other cases against Miller and another former UK player, Ed Davender, appeared on televi-the complaint, but was awaiting further information from Osbourn.

Downs said he has since learned that Miller was supposedly not employed by the book publisher when he collected the most recent checks, which he said is even more disappointing to him.

"It's really disappointing because you never want to see people in the public eye doing stuff like this," Downs said. "A lot of kids and other people look up to these basketball Denick came in and said I'm selling ads for the book again, and I said put me down."
