We are opposed to LG&E sneaking up the charges on our utility bills are we are going to fight it.

We expect the PSC to be on our side, but, as that hasn't seemed to be the case in MANY years, we can only hope. There is, however, a ground swell of distaste for government watchdog agencies that is gaining momentum. Some of these agencies that fail continuously us are of little or no value and, as shocking and impossible as it may seem, could be eliminated in favor of a new, improved watchdog apparatus.

We also expect the Attorney General to take OUR side in this fight (especially in light of his running for political office) but his past record of making promises to fight the fuel industry and then caving in, leave us doubtful.

Again, we respectfully request that you follow the original intent of the Commission and look out for the interest of the tax payers.

Thank You,
