To whom it may concern,

I wanted to take this opportunity to voice my disagreement with the proposed LG&E rate increases. As many have voiced at in-person hearings and through interviews with local new personnel, I too think now is the time for the company to re-examine ways to become more cost effective and not push the burden to the citizens of Louisville. Specifically, I am amazed that the leadership at LG&E are willing to raise our rates, while year after year they attend both the Derby and Oaks, in their plush suite at Churchill - as well as pay a very large amount annually for the suite throughout both racing seasons. I'm sure additional evidence could be found regarding other sporting events where large amounts of money is being spent frivolously - all while trying to make a case to increase our rates. To me, this is not right, and I hope you decline their request.

Sincerely,
Melissa Minch
