

2. In paragraph 3(c) of the Answer, LG&E attached copies of Complainant's brown bills. This information contains the customer's account number and merits confidential protection because LG&E believes that revealing their contents in the public record could result in an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

3. If the Commission disagrees with this request for confidential protection, however, it must hold an evidentiary hearing (a) to protect LG&E's due process rights and (b) to supply the Commission with a complete record to enable it to reach a decision with regard to this matter. Utility Regulatory Commission v. Kentucky Water Service Company, Inc., Ky. App., 642 S.W.2d 591, 592-94 (1982).

4. LG&E will disclose the confidential documents, pursuant to a protective agreement, to intervenors and others with a legitimate interest in this information and as required by the Commission. In accordance with the provisions of 807 KAR 5:001 Section 7, LG&E herewith files with the Commission one copy of the above-discussed documents with the confidential information highlighted and ten (10) copies of its response without the confidential information.

WHEREFORE, Louisville Gas and Electric Company respectfully requests that the Commission grant confidential protection for the information at issue, or in the alternative, schedule an evidentiary hearing on all factual issues while maintaining the confidentiality of the information pending the outcome of the hearing.
