MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME TO FILE DIRECT TESTIMONY

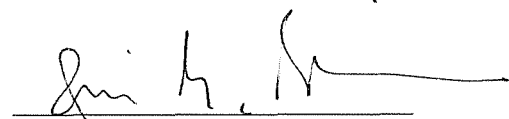

* * * * *

Comes the Community Action Council for Lexington-Fayette, Bourbon, Harrison and Nicholas Counties, Inc. (CAC), by counsel, and moves that it be granted an enlargement of time to file written direct testimony in this case up to and including June 25, 2010. CAC states that this motion is not for purposes of delay, but is for the purpose of CAC having adequate time for preparation of the testimony.

As grounds for this motion, CAC states that the procedural order in this case issued on June 8, 2010 established June 21, 2010 as the date for filing written testimony by all parties. Counsel was out of the office or out of town from June 11 – June 20, 2010. In addition, key personnel in the CAC were out of the office or out of town the week of June 14 - June 18. Counsel states that an extension of time is necessary in order that the testimony that is filed by CAC be complete and accurate. CAC states that because of the short procedural schedule for filing direct testimony and the pre-existing commitments and time out of the office of counsel and CAC personnel, CAC has not had sufficient time to prepare its testimony.

WHEREFORE, CAC requests that the Commission find that it has shown good cause for an extension of time, and that it be granted a four day extension until and including June 25, 2010 to file its written direct testimony.

Respectfully submitted,

IRIS G. SKIDMORE
