MESSAGE: Dear Counsel, Elam Utility and the PSC:

Please be advised that we represent the interests of Columbia Gas Transmission, LLC (“Columbia-Transmission”), in connection with the rights that it has by virtue of the September 30, 2009, judgment that was recognized in an action styled Columbia Gas Transmission, LLC v. Elam Utility Company, Inc., 10-fj-00002, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky, Ashland Division (the “Action”), whereby Elam Utility Company, Inc. (“Elam Utility”) was adjudged indebted to Columbia-Transmission in the sum of $313,646.35, a copy of which is attached hereto. In addition, we have been advised that either Columbia-Transmission or Columbia Gulf Transmission Company (“Columbia-Gulf”) is also owed another $390,114.00, for a total of $703,760.35.

The undersigned was advised by Mr. Andrew Melnykovich of the PSC that it would be helpful to file certain documents relating to this action with the PSC in a matter styled In the Matter of: Elam Utility Company, Inc., and its Owner/Shareholder (Alleged Abandonment of Service to Morgan County, Kentucky), Case No. 2010-00292, Commonwealth of Kentucky, Before the Public Service Commission. To that end, Columbia-Transmission has attached hereto the following:

- a. the judgment registered in the Action;
- b. a judgment lien filed yesterday afternoon in the Morgan County Clerk’s Office;
- c. a judgment lien filed this afternoon in the Wolfe County Clerk’s Office;
- d. an order of garnishment that was served today on Commercial Bank in West Liberty;
- e. an order of garnishment that was served today on Citizen’s Bank in West Liberty;
- f. an order of garnishment that was served today on the Bank of the Mountains in West Liberty; and
- g. an order of garnishment that was served today on First National Bank of Grayson in West Liberty.

We have heard that the City of West Liberty is considering buying Elam Utility Company, Inc., or its assets. Although Columbia has not moved to intervene at this time, it would appreciate being
