CAROLYN HAX

Uncle's suggestion that teen needs nose job was out of line

Dear Carolyn: My 13-year-old niece is tiny and has a big nose. We live in a community where a lot of teenage girls have cosmetic surgery at 16. I suggested to my brother in private that his daughter might be a candidate for this procedure. (My 19-year-old stepdaughter and my wife have had nose jobs.) My brother was deeply offended and angry about my remark. We are not talking. Was I over the line in making this suggestion in a private setting?

against you.

I'm saying all of this as someone who has no emotional ties to anyone involved, and who fully supports the right of any adult to take control of his or her appearance, your wife and stepdaughter and the rest of Stepford included.

"In private," by the way, just tells me you were fully aware this was touchy stuff.

So take the above as a rough estimate of the repairs you're facing with your brother.

— P.
