NOTARIZED PROOF OF PUBLICATION

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

COUNTY OF Franklin

Before me, a Notary Public, in and for said county and state, this 21st day of October, 2016 came Rachael McComdy, personally known to me, who, being duly sworn, states as follows: that she is the Advertising Assistant of the Kentucky Press Service, Inc.; that she has personal knowledge of the contents of this affidavit; and that the publications included on the attached list published the Legal Notice for East Kentucky Power Cooperative, Inc. .

Most of the money will likely have to come from federal sources, Budd said.

That's a tough sell in Kentucky where tea party-backed Republicans control purse strings. Northern Kentucky's member of Congress, Rep. Thomas Massie, R-Ky., doesn't seem inclined to fight for streetcar money.

In a statement to The Enquirer, he said other infrastructure needs are more important with the federal highway fund running a deficit. The Congressional Budget Office has predicted if nothing changes, the $1 billion deficit in the highway fund could grow to $108 billion by 2025.

"So the question becomes, do I support more deficit spending or would I vote to raise the gas tax for the streetcar?" Massie said in a statement. "And the answer to both of those is no."

Who's going to step up?

So if Northern Kentuckians want a streetcar, they'll have to find someone in charge to step up.

Based on recent responses, that doesn't seem likely right now.

In February, Budd, Fennell and a few other Northern Kentucky Streetcar Committee members visited Washington, D.C. to gauge support for the

Legal Notice

Charter's (formerly Time Warner Cable) agreements with programmers to carry their services routinely expire. We are usually able to obtain renewals or extensions of such agreements, and carriage of programming services is discontinued only in rare circumstances. The following agreements with programmers are due to expire soon, and we may be required to cease carriage of one or more of these services in the near future: WKYI, WNDAMWWS, Youtoo, HRTV, RFD (SD & HD), ReelzChannel, Pivot, TV One, ShopHQ/EVINE Live, POP/TVGN, Music Choice (channels 901-951 in Lebanon and New Haven), Outdoor Channel (SD & HD), Aspire, FM, Fuse (SD & HD), Weather Channel (SD & HD).

In addition, from time to time we make certain changes in the services that we offer in order to better serve our customers. The following changes are planned: Charter is moving towards a higher-quality, digital-only experience to provide better picture and sound, more HD channels and more On Demand choices. Delivering channels in digital format is one way we continue to improve the quality of our service. Effective on or after November 15, 2016, the following channels will be offered exclusively in a digital format in Lebanon and New Haven: C-SPAN on Starter TV channel 15 / QAM channel 85.104 and C-SPAN2 on Starter TV channel 17 / QAM 85.104.

This change will require digital equipment in order to view these channels on all television sets. This change will not impact TVs connected to a digital set top box, retail CableCard device or digital TVs equipped with a QAM tuner. TVs with built-in digital cable tuners (QAM or ClearQAM) will continue to be able to view this programming without additional equipment needed on the QAM channel numbers listed above.

On or about October 31st, Pivot (Louisville channel 276 and channel 120 in Lebanon and New Haven) will no longer be
