Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, and the Audit Guide for County Fee Officials issued by the Auditor of Public Accounts, Commonwealth of Kentucky. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

As described in Note 1 of the financial statements, the financial statements are prepared by the Jefferson County Sheriff on the basis of the accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the laws of Kentucky to demonstrate compliance with the Commonwealth of Kentucky's regulatory basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The effects on the financial statements of the variances between the regulatory basis of accounting described in Note 1 and accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, although not reasonably determinable, are presumed to be material.

Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

In our opinion, because of the significance of the matter discussed in the Basis for Adverse Opinion on U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles paragraph, the financial statements referred to above do not present fairly, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the financial position of each fund of the Jefferson County Sheriff, as of December 31, 2016, or changes in financial position or cash flows thereof or for the year then ended.

Opinion on Regulatory Basis of Accounting

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the receipts and disbursements of the Jefferson County Sheriff and the receipts, disbursements, and fund balances of the sheriff's operating fund and county fund with the state treasurer for the year ended December 31, 2016, in accordance with the basis of accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the Commonwealth of Kentucky as described in Note 1.

Other Matter

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole of the Jefferson County Sheriff. The Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards, as required by the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance) is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements; however, it is required to be presented in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the Department for Local Government to demonstrate compliance with the Commonwealth of Kentucky's regulatory basis of accounting and budget laws.

The accompanying Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relate directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements itself, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the Schedule of

Bike, walking plan on Kenton drawing board

MREINERT@ENQUIRER.COM

If you want to help Kenton County make the most of its biking and walking opportunities, now's the time to speak up.

County leaders want to hear from you about Kenton Connects, the community's bicycle and pedestrian plan.

Reser, an avid biker, also owns Reser Bicycle Outfitters in Newport.

"I joined this committee because I think this is an important topic for our community," Reser said. "I see this plan as an opportunity to create a compelling vision, as well as demonstrate the facts as far as this can positively impact our community."

Reser said recent studies across the U.S. show that walking trails can do it yourself or bring along friends and family."

According to Reser, Kenton County has made many strides in the right direction over the years but needs to update its plan for present and future bike and pedestrian traffic. He envisions a county – and eventually a region – that has a connected trail system.

"I see people being able to use obesity and cancer," he said. "Nothing demonstrates a higher effectiveness in reducing these stats than building an environment that encourages people to get out and be healthy."

"If there is a road in front of your house and there are no sidewalks you're not going to be inspired to go for a walk, run or bike ride. However, having a trail nearby your back-
