Comments:

I don't really have much of a comment on the rate case, but I do have a comment on the miscellaneous fees attached to each bill. In my latest bill, only ~75% is for my usage. The rest is taxes, fees, and riders.

As a consumer, I am fine paying the usage rates for the power I use for a service I am provided. I do not think as a consumer I should be charged with fees associated with upgrading and decommissioning of old equipment/facilities.

I have lived in multiple areas of Kentucky and in other states, which Kentucky Power was not the electric provider. Every other place I have lived, the electric service has been a fraction of what I am paying today.

Something has to be done, with the impacts of rising utilities and decreasing employment/economic opportunities, I do not feel like padding the pockets of executives and shareholders is in the best interest of the customers of Kentucky Power.
