about the problem. And got no satisfaction. I called the PSC, and made my complaint.

As for the condition of the property there is nothing wrong with my property LGE is lying. The Tech never said anything like that to me or the man we sent to open the house.

As far as I know LGE has never made the repairs on their side of the meter and my house remains vacant.

As far as the relief that I seek I would hope that the PSC would fine LGE for their conduct in this matter.

And that LGE pay all of my losses & be ordered to pay punitive damages for their conduct.
