05/03/18	David S. Samford Duke Energy Kentucky, Inc. Petition for Rehearing
05/03/18	Order Entered: 1. Duke Kentucky's motions for confidential treatment made on November 21, 2017, January 31, 2018, March 29, 2018, and April 3, 2018 are hereby denied. 2. The documents and materials produced in response to Staff's First Request No. 59 for which confidential treatment was requested in those motions do not meet the criteria for confidential treatment and, therefore, shall be made available to the public. 3. The Commission will not place the materials into the public record for a period of 30 days pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, Section 13(5). 4. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as preventing the Commission from revisiting the confidential treatment of materials and information.
05/03/18	Order Entered: 1. Duke Kentucky's motion for confidential treatment made on or about November 13, 2017, be and is hereby granted, in part, and denied, in part. 2. Duke Kentucky failed to establish that the materials produced in response to Staff's Second Request 90(b) and Attorney General's First Request No. 74 meet the criteria for confidential treatment and, therefore, those materials shall be made available to the public. 3. The remaining materials for which confidential treatment was sought meet the criteria for confidential treatment and, therefore, shall not be made available to the public for a period of 20 years from the date of this order, unless the Commission orders otherwise. 4. Duke Kentucky shall inform the Commission if the materials granted confidential protection become publicly available or no longer qualify for confidential treatment. 5. If a non-party to this proceeding requests to inspect materials granted confidential treatment by this order, Duke Kentucky shall have 20 days from receipt of written notice of the request to demonstrate that the materials are exempt from disclosure, pursuant to KRS 61.878. If Duke Kentucky is unable to make such demonstration or the non-party establishes that an exemption does not apply, the requested materials shall be made available for inspection.
05/03/18	Order Entered: 1. Duke Kentucky's September 1, 2017, and January 12, 2018 motions for confidential treatment are hereby granted, in part, and denied, in part. 2. The designated portions of attachment WDW-2 to the Direct Testimony of William Don Wathen, Jr; and attachments TS-1 (a)- (g) and TS-8(a)-(c) to the testimony of Thomas Silinski for which confidential treatment was requested shall not be placed in the public record or subject to public disclosure for a period of 20 years, unless and until the Commission orders otherwise. 3. The portions of Schedule G-3 filed with the Application and supplements thereto providing compensation information for officers and executives whose compensation or any portion thereof was not jurisdictionally attributed to Kentucky by Duke Kentucky and not previously released publically meet the criteria for confidential treatment pursuant to KRS

	61.878(1) and 807 KAR 5:001, Section 13 and, therefore, shall be exempt from public disclosure. The remaining portions of Schedule G-3 and any supplements do not meet the criteria for public disclosure and, therefore, shall be made available to the public. Within 30 days from the date of this order, Duke Kentucky shall file into the public record Schedule G-3 and any supplements with only the information for which confidential treatment was granted redacted.
