05/15/26	POST CASE: Rebecca Price AEUG Fleming Solar Notice of Substitution of Counsel
09/06/22	Order Entered: the case is closed and removed from the Siting Board's Docket.
11/12/21	Order Entered: 1. AEUG Fleming's petition for reconsideration, clarification and for a formal conference is granted in part and denied in part. 2. AEUG Fleming's petition for reconsideration and clarification for Mitigation Measure 3 is granted. Mitigation Measure 3 is stricken from Appendix A to the May 24, 2021 Order and replaced with the following: The Siting Board will determine if any deviation in the boundaries (as set forth in Mitigation Measure 2) is likely to create a materially different pattern or magnitude of impacts. If not, no further action is required; but if that is the case, AEUG Fleming will support the Siting Board's effort to review its assessment of impacts and mitigation requirements. If AEUG Fleming modifies its site development plan from the version originally submitted with its Application in a manner that negatively impacts noise levels or external view, such as moving project infrastructure closer to adjoining neighbors, then it will similarly submit such information to the Siting Board for review as specified above.
