05/08/23	Final Order Entered: 1. The Agreement between Duke Kentucky and Diversey is approved. 2. For future EDR contracts, Duke Kentucky shall file specific detailed support for the Administrative Case 327 Order, finding 5 showing that Duke Kentucky has adequate system capacity to serve the proposed customer and that the load served will not cause it to fall below a reserve margin considered essential for system reliability. 3. For future EDR contracts, Duke Kentucky shall file specific support for the Administrative Case 327 Order, finding 6 and demonstrate that the discounted rate exceeds the marginal cost associated with serving the customer, including a marginal cost of service study. 4. By March 31 of each year, Duke Kentucky shall file an annual report with the Commission detailing, for the prior calendar year, revenues received from Diversey and the marginal costs associated with serving Diversey throughout the term of the special contract. 5. During any rate proceedings filed by Duke Kentucky subsequent to the effective date of the special contract with Diversey, and during a period when Duke Kentucky still has an active EDR contract, Duke Kentucky shall demonstrate through a detailed cost-of-service analysis that its non-EDR ratepayers are not adversely affected by the EDR rate to Diversey and any other EDR customers that may be on the Duke Kentucky system at that time.
