CASE NO. 8750

O R D E R

On March 15, 1983, South Central Bell Telephone Company ("South Central Bell"), by counsel, filed its Motion for Extension of Time and Protective Order. On March 25, 1983, South Central Bell filed in support of the Motion the affidavit of Robert M. Scott, Jr., Systems Manager-Marketing.

In support of its Motion, South Central Bell states that the Commission's Order entered March 8, 1983, directing that certain information be filed was received March 10, 1983, and since several of the items requested require detailed compilation of material, it is not possible to submit the data by March 15, 1983, as specified in the Order.

South Central Bell further states that Request Items 3 and 4 call for specific customer information which constitutes Confidential Commercial Information and requests that the Commission enter an Order labeling the information "Confidential Commercial Information".

The Commission, having considered the Motion, affidavit, and being advised, HEREBY ORDERS that the Motion be and it hereby is sustained.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That documents filed in response to Request Items 3 and 4, when received, be labeled "Confidential Commercial Information", and shall not be disclosed to any person until such time as a confidentiality agreement shall have been executed. Access to said materials shall be for use in this proceeding only and for no other purpose. Any party to this proceeding who desires access to the information referred to shall file an appropriate motion with the Commission with notice to South Central Bell and shall execute a confidentiality agreement. If South Central Bell objects to the release of any information to a party who has made such a motion, it shall set forth specific reasons for its objections in a written response filed with the Commission within 5 days after receipt of the motion.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That confidential materials furnished pursuant to the Commission's Order shall be retained by the Commission under appropriate security until termination of this proceeding at which time the original and all copies shall be returned to South Central Bell or destroyed unless such materials shall be deemed by the Commission to be necessary for its continuing jurisdiction over South Central Bell. In such event, the documents may be retained by the Commission under appropriate security.
