

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

TARIFF FILING OF AMERICALL	)	CASE NO.
SYSTEMS OF LOUISVILLE	)	89-236

O R D E R

On July 24, 1989, AmeriCall Systems of Louisville ("AmeriCall") filed a proposed tariff seeking to make numerous revisions to its rates and rules of service which it proposed to place into effect August 23, 1989.

On August 23, 1989, the Commission suspended the entire proposed tariff for 5 months from the effective date. On September 12, 1989, AmeriCall filed a motion for reconsideration of the Order suspending the proposed tariff. The Commission denied AmeriCall's motion by Order dated November 1, 1989.

The Commission, on its own motion, hereby schedules a hearing in this matter for January 5, 1990 beginning at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, in the Commission's offices in Frankfort, Kentucky. The Commission finds that an informal conference may be helpful to discuss, and possibly narrow, the issues for hearing; therefore, an informal conference is set for January 4, 1990 beginning at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, in the Commission's offices.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 21st day of December, 1989.
