Re: Christian County Water District
Complaint and Protest Against
South Hopkins Water District

Dear Ms. Flannery:

As attorney for the Christian County Water District, I forward herewith to you a formal complaint and protest signed by the Christian County Water District with regard to the furnishing by South Hopkins Water District, service to two residents of Christian County by means believed by the Christian County Water District to be improper and in contravention of the Commission's order in case no. 90-220. Would you proceed to process this complaint and advise me if you need further information from the Christian County Water District in order to pursue and investigate this matter properly.

Thanking you, I am

Very truly yours,

John P. Kirkham

COMPLAINT AND PROTEST ON BEHALF OF
CHRISTIAN COUNTY WATER DISTRICT

RE: SOUTH HOPKINS WATER DISTRICT;
Service to Bob Hamby and Wayne Hamby
Residents of Christian County, Kentucky

COMES NOW the Christian County Water District, by C.D. Burkhead, Chairman, and files this protest and complaint against the South Hopkins Water District, and says that said District is furnishing service to two users, in contravention of the Commission's order in case no. 90-220.

The residents of Christian County who are receiving service are Bob Hamby and Wayne Hamby, who both live inside Christian County, Kentucky, and who are nearby and available to be served from the Christian County Water District lines constructed on Collins Bridge Road, running to the Hopkins County line.

The individuals involved do not own any property upon which the South Hopkins Water District has water lines. They have placed their meters respectively on property owned by Odell Hamby, a relative, who initiated a great deal of the problems with respect to the dispute between South Hopkins and Christian County in 1990, who has given them each an easement to run water lines across his (Odell Hamby's) property, to property owned by each of the above named customers which is located in Christian County.

It is believed by the Christian County Water District that these acts are being conducted in contravention to the Commission's order, both the spirit and language thereof, as set out in case no. 90-220 and a formal protest and complaint is filed herein with the request that this matter be investigated by the Public Service Commission and a determination made whether an order to cease and desist should be entered against the South Hopkins Water District for furnishing service to the two meters for the above named individuals who owned no property in Hopkins County adjacent to the South Hopkins water lines and who are residents of Christian County, and to whom water is available from the Christian County lines on Collins Bridge Road.

Respectfully submitted,

C.D. Burkhead
Chairman
Christian County Water District
