

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

ADOPTION OF INTERCONNECTION)
AGREEMENT BETWEEN KENTUCKY ALLTEL,)	CASE NO.
INC. AND SOUTHEAST TELEPHONE, INC. BY)	2004-00327
AERO COMMUNICATIONS, INC.)

O R D E R

On August 20, 2004, Aero Communications, LLC (“Aero”) filed with the Commission its request to adopt the currently effective interconnection agreement between Kentucky ALLTEL, Inc. (“ALLTEL”) and SouthEast Telephone, Inc. (“SouthEast”). That agreement was arbitrated pursuant to 47 U.S.C. §§ 251 and 252 and was approved by the Commission. Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 251(i), Aero is entitled to adopt the agreement.¹

The Commission, having been otherwise sufficiently advised, HEREBY ORDERS that the request of Aero to adopt the currently effective interconnection agreement between ALLTEL and SouthEast is granted, effective the date of this Order.

¹ During a conference call held September 8, 2004, at 1:30 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time, ALLTEL agreed it had no objection to the Commission’s approval of Aero’s request to adopt. Additionally, ALLTEL and Aero agreed to continue negotiating even after this adoption was approved by the Commission.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 15th day of September, 2004.

By the Commission

Commissioner W. Gregory Coker did not participate in the deliberations or decision concerning this case.
