1. In its motion of November 3, 2005, NKWD states that it has accepted the low bid of $971,222 for its Grand Avenue main extension project. Provide a detailed itemized list of the project construction cost including, but not limited to, legal fees, engineering, inspection fees, and contingencies.

2. Explain why, in NKWD's opinion, construction projects whose total costs are less than $1,000,000 should be considered an extension in the ordinary course of business.
