Formal Complaint

John McKechnan vs. Louisville Gas & Electric

Page 2 of 2

Two years later, I received a bill for $5000<sup>00</sup> from LG&E for 319 N Street for service incurred after I told them to turn off service. I disputed the bill then and had been told that the gas had been left on when "service was disconnected" they said it was because the gas meter was in the cellar. I know that the gas could have been turned off elsewhere. (Don't)

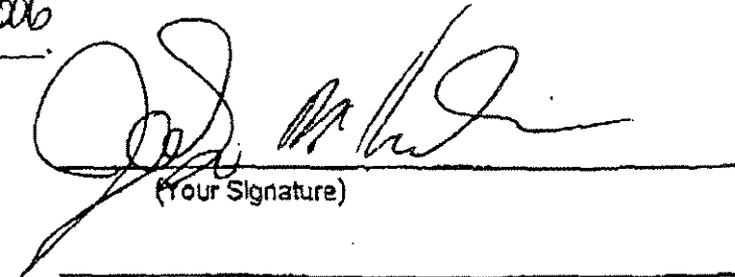

Wherefore, complainant asks

(Specifically state the relief desired.)

That all charges be removed, and that all harassment and Harassments of leaving me & my family (wife & 4 children) in the dark when the residence's bill has been paid in full.
