COMPLAINANT

BRANDENBURG TELEPHONE COMPANY

DEFENDANT

COMPLAINT

RECEIVED

SEP 11 2007

PUBLIC SERVICE
COMMISSION

The complaint of THOMAS DEAN STAUFFER respectfully shows:

- (a) THOMAS DEAN STAUFFER
420 BLEVINS RD
PAYNEVILLE, KY 40157
- (b) BRANDENBURG TELEPHONE COMPANY
P. O. BOX 599
BRANDENBURG, KY 40108-0599
- (c) That: The Defendant has willfully defied an informal ruling from the Commission and demanded, extorted and stole payments made by the Complainant and his wife Ilissa Louise Stauffer, clearly marked and intended to pay their own bill. The resulting harassment resulted in the complainant's wife being institutionalized for a mental breakdown after trying to pay one months bill and being told she had to pay the last three months that we had already paid. (See exhibit L.) I have been refused phone service until my son's bill is paid even though I had nothing to do with that bill and the defendants refuse to discuss the bill with me, admitting that my name was not on it.

Formal Complaint

Thomas D. Stauffer vs. Brandenburg Telephone Company

I stopped payment on the check she paid on August 9, 2007, because they have been applying our payments to the wrong account and now they want to charge more fees. (See Exhibit N) First they steal from you then they charge you late fees and return check fees. I have no problem paying my bill, as long as they give proof that they applied it to my Account, not someone else's.

To two older people with serious health problems, having phone service isn't a luxury, but a medical necessity. We have been loyal customers of Brandenburg Telephone since 1991.

In the rural area that we live, Brandenburg Telephone has a monopoly on phone service. There is no cable down our county road and the only high speed Internet service is by satellite, and it isn't reliable enough to get Internet phone service.

BACKGROUND

1. The bill in question is for [REDACTED]. This number used to be my parent's number until they passed away. David, our son, was living with his grandparents to help with driving them places, so he wanted to keep the same number. My wife, Ilissa, was a signee on their account because my dad was deaf and my mother had Alzheimer's disease, so she acted as power of attorney in their behalf. In her mental disability (See Exhibit M), she believed that she was only acting as "Power of Attorney" when she signed on David's phone service. David was working Days and had no way to take care of business at the Phone Company himself.

Formal Complaint

2. When David, his fiancée, Stacy Kelly and her Dad started running up long distance charges, My wife and I went to the Phone Company and paid the $80.00 bill and tried to get her name off of the bill. The defendants refused to take her name off of the bill. Had they done so she wouldn't have been liable in any way!
3. In May, 2007, David lost his job and couldn't pay his bill. So the defendants transferred his entire balance to our account as of June 1, 2007. See copies of bills attached, exhibits A - K. That is when I first called the Public Service Commission. They told the defendants that they couldn't combine the two bills but they refused to capitulate. The Commission told me to keep paying our part of the bill and they couldn't shut our phone off. That didn't stop them from making threatening calls anyway. Even if we paid by the due date, we still got threatening letters and phone calls. (See Exhibits F, G & H for the month of July)
4. Since the bill was transferred to our phone account, the defendants have made no attempt to bill or otherwise collect from the principals on the original account. They would rather aggressively pursue a Legally disabled person than go after a young person. (See Exhibit M) My wife never lived where [REDACTED] was connected and therefore never benefited from the service.
5. We made sure that our checks had our phone number on the memo sections, [REDACTED] See exhibits D & H. But because of their combining the accounts our payments were credited to [REDACTED]-[REDACTED]. Note: Because the accounts are combined, we can't see that they are applying the payments to our account. We only get a balance forward.

Formal Complaint

6. On August 29, 2007, My wife Ilissa went by to pay our normal bill. They refused to take the $30.00 claiming that we owed over $90.00 on our bill. They put her in a room with Toby. She suffers from Social and Authority Anxiety especially from men. He forced, coerced or otherwise intimidated her into signing some sort of Promissory note for the balance. I don't have all the specifics because in violation of contract law they didn't give her a copy and refused to give me a copy either. This was too much for her to handle and caused her to be admitted to Communicare Adult Crisis center, under suicide watch. (See Exhibit L) I stopped payment on the check that she wrote because until this mess is corrected we have no way to know what they are doing with our payment.
7. Because the Defendant refuses to abide by the law and ruling of the Commission, a simple act of paying a bill turned into a life and death situation for my wife. Because she was harmed as a result of the theft of our phone payments, I am asking the Commission to treat this as an assault or at the very least a criminal act!

Wherefore, complainant asks for relief from the matter of the bill for [REDACTED], and that he be granted phone service in his own name, without deposit or bond, and that all moneys applied to [REDACTED] be credited back to our bill [REDACTED]. That any and all promissory notes signed by Ilissa Louise Stauffer be made null and void, including any liability for service at 400 Blevins Rd. [REDACTED] as her disability precluded her from understanding said contracts. To refund any and all late fees and returned check fees. And grant punitive damages in the amount of $3000.00 for the harm done to Ilissa Stauffer and her family as a result of the defiance of the previous order to separate the accounts and the misapplication of payments to the wrong account.
