

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

AN INVESTIGATION OF THE	)
ENERGY AND REGULATORY	)	ADMINISTRATIVE
ISSUES IN SECTION 50 OF	)	CASE NO. 2007-00477
KENTUCKY'S 2007 ENERGY ACT	)

O R D E R

Pending before the Commission are two motions for full intervention: one from the Association of Community Ministries ("ACM"), a nonprofit corporation whose membership is comprised of 15 independent community ministries that provide services to the Louisville, Kentucky metropolitan area; and the other from People Organized and Working for Energy Reform ("POWER"), an unincorporated nonprofit organization working to preserve utility services for low-income households in Louisville, Kentucky.

Based on the motions and being otherwise sufficiently advised, the Commission finds that ACM and POWER propose to represent the interests of low-income households served by Louisville Gas and Electric Company and that their intervention on a joint basis is likely to present issues and develop facts that will assist the Commission in fully considering the matter without unduly complicating or disrupting the proceedings.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The motions of ACM and POWER to intervene are granted on a joint basis and they shall be considered as one party.

2. ACM/POWER shall be entitled to the full rights of a party and shall be served with the Commission's Orders and with filed testimony, exhibits, pleadings, correspondence, and all other documents submitted by parties after the date of this Order.

3. Should ACM/POWER file documents of any kind with the Commission in the course of these proceedings, ACM/POWER shall also serve a copy of said documents on all other parties of record.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 8th day of January, 2008.

By the Commission
