O R D E R

On December 6, 2007, Shirley J. Day filed a formal complaint with the Commission against AT&T Communications of the South Central States, Inc. ("AT&T") alleging, among other things, that AT&T wrongfully considered her a long-distance customer and erroneously billed her for long-distance charges she never incurred. On January 17, 2008, AT&T answered the complaint and moved the Commission for dismissal, claiming that it had satisfied the complaint.

In its March 25, 2008 Order, the Commission stated that AT&T appeared to have satisfied the complaint, and directed Complainant to inform the Commission, within 20 days of the date of the Order, whether or not AT&T had satisfied the matters of which she complained. The March 25, 2008 Order also provided that if Complainant filed no response within the allotted time, the Commission would dismiss the case as satisfied and remove it from the Commission's docket. Complainant's response to the Commission's Order was due no later than April 14, 2008. As of the date of this Order, Complainant has not responded. Pursuant to the March 25, 2008 Order, we find that the complaint should be dismissed as satisfied.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

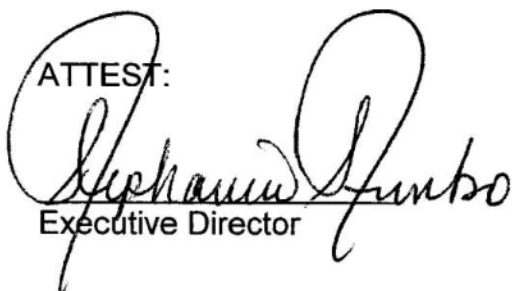

1. This complaint is dismissed with prejudice as satisfied and is removed from the Commission's docket.

2. This is a final and appealable Order.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 24th day of April, 2008.
