IN KENTUCKY)

ORDER

On January 18, 2013, Nexus Communications, Inc. ("Nexus") filed a motion requesting return of an original confidential document and, contingent upon return of that document, requesting withdrawal of its previous Petition for Confidentiality. On June 16, 2011, Nexus filed its responses to the Third Request for Information from Commission Staff, along with a Petition for Confidentiality. Nexus requested that the Commission grant confidential protection to Nexus's response to Commission Staff's Wireless Question No. 2 and Wireless Question No. 3. These questions asked Nexus to disclose the services provided over its network facilities and the services provided via private commercial arrangements with other carriers. On September 27, 2011, the Commission granted Nexus's motion to hold all matters in this case in abeyance. On December 28, 2012, Nexus filed a motion to reactivate its case and an amended petition.

Nexus states in its motion that consistent with the Lifeline Reform Order¹ issued by the Federal Communications Commission and changes to the facilities-based requirements for eligible telecommunications carriers, its responses to Staff questions are no longer relevant to this proceeding. The Commission agrees that the information is no longer relevant. Therefore the Commission will return the documents filed with a Petition for Confidentiality on June 16, 2011 to the Applicant's Attorney and grant the motion requesting withdrawal of the Petition for Confidentiality.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Nexus's motion is granted.
2. The Commission will return the documents filed with a Petition for Confidentiality on June 16, 2011 to the Applicant's Attorney.
