On April 1, 2013, Commission Staff filed this report with the Commission.

Symsonia District has filed a response to the report in which it expressly waives its right to a hearing, and requests that this matter be submitted for decision.¹ Symsonia District has further advised the Commission that, while it does not object to Commission Staff's findings and recommendations, it does not intend to request the rates that Commission Staff found reasonable and prefers to charge the rates set forth in its application, which are less than the Commission Staff-recommended rates.
