Re: Investigation Concerning the Propriety of InterLATA Services by BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. Pursuant to the Telecommunications
Act of 1996
PSC 2001-105

Dear Mr. Dorman:

On September 26, 2003, in the above-referenced case, BellSouth filed Responses to the Commission's August 8, 2003, Data Requests. Included as Exhibit 4 was a summary and detailed accounting of Tier 1 and Tier 2 penalties held in abeyance. Due to an error, the Exhibit's summary page and the backup detail pages were incorrectly labeled. Consequently, BellSouth is providing as an attachment to this letter the corrected sheets for Exhibit 4. Please substitute these pages for the Exhibit 4 pages filed with the Commission. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

One proprietary and five edited copies in paper form are provided to the Commission. A proprietary CD and an edited CD are also provided to the Commission. An edited CD is provided to all parties of record. Parties of record who have executed a Protective Agreement and want a copy of the proprietary information should call my office to request a copy.

Sincerely,

Dorothy J. Chambers
