

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

REVIEW OF FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS)
COMMISSION’S TRIENNIAL REVIEW ORDER)	CASE NO.
REGARDING LOCAL CIRCUIT SWITCHING)	2003-00347
FOR DS1 ENTERPRISE CUSTOMERS)

NOTICE OF CORRECTION OF TESTIMONY

Petitioner, SouthEast Telephone, Inc. (“SouthEast”), respectfully submits a correction to the testimony of Carey Roesel previously filed herein. As the Commission is aware, neither Mr. Roesel nor Darrell Maynard, the two witnesses for SouthEast, took the stand at the hearing in this matter. Although they were present at the hearing, none of the parties present at the hearing had any questions for the witnesses, so the matter was taken under submission by the Commission.

In reviewing his pre-filed testimony, however, Mr. Roesel informed counsel for SouthEast that he did have a change in the testimony that he was not permitted to make on the stand. The changes he wished to make occurred on Page 4 of his testimony, lines 11 and 12. According to Mr. Roesel, the phrase “[a]ll areas of Kentucky that do not fall within any established Metropolitan Statistical Area” should have read “[a]ll areas of Kentucky, including Clark County and all counties east thereof, that do not fall within the Lexington and Louisville metropolitan markets.” Thus, the proper sentence in his testimony should read, beginning with Page 4, Line 10:

Q. What other areas of Kentucky show evidence of economic impairment?

A. All areas of Kentucky, including Clark County, and all counties east thereof, that do not fall within the Lexington and Louisville metropolitan markets would likely show insufficient levels of DS1 enterprise service demand to justify deployment of a stand-alone switch.

Petitioner knows of no other changes to Mr. Roesel's uncontradicted testimony.

Respectfully submitted,
