RE: Case No. 2003-00379 CompSouth's Rebuttal Testimony

Dear Mr. Dorman:

Enclosed please find an original and four copies of the non-confidential Rebuttal Testimony of Gary J. Ball and Joseph Gillan on behalf of Competitive Carriers of the South ("CompSouth") for filing in the above-referenced case. A single copy of the confidential version of the testimony of each witness is enclosed.

The confidential references in this rebuttal testimony relate primarily to discovery responses subject to pending motions for confidential treatment. For example, Mr. Ball's testimony discusses information disclosed by companies alleged by BellSouth to be trigger candidates. Bellsouth and/or the disclosing carriers have previously sought confidential treatment for the testimony discussing these companies and/or the data request responses that are the basis for testimony. A confidentiality motion is included with this filing.

These electronically filed documents are a true representation of the original documents. A copy of this letter is being mailed to the Kentucky Cable Telecommunications Association, as required by the Commission's procedural orders.

Please return one "FILED" stamped copy of this letter in the enclosed envelope.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas F. Brent
