RECC-Gibson Merge,

of HFRECC's and Gibson EMC's employees will keep their jobs.

"Our board is happy with the outcome," says David Kimbell, HFRECC Board Chair. "We look forward to 2016 and the positive changes it will bring for our members," Kimbell says.

Gibson EMC Steve Sanders agrees. "We're pleased that our members have voted strongly in favor of the merger," Sanders says. "It is a decision that will benefit our members in the long-term and benefit Hickman-Fulton's members immediately."

Dan Rodamaker, Gibson EMC President and CEO, describes the outcome as a win-win. HFRECC members are expected to see a cumulative savings of about $12.6 million over the next 10 years. Gibson EMC members also will benefit from the merger by spreading costs over a larger number of members and by eliminating duplication.

"We want to thank all of the members who voted," Dan Rodamaker says. "We also want to thank the employees and board members of both cooperatives for their selfless decisions and hard work. We look forward to joining with the HFRECC board and employees and to serving the HFRECC members."

The electric systems of Gibson EMC and HFRECC connect along the Tennessee and Kentucky border. HFRECC serves about 3,700 residents and businesses in Fulton, Hickman, Carlisle and Graves counties in Western Kentucky and portions of Obion and Lake counties in Northwest Tennessee. Gibson EMC serves about 35,000 members in parts of eight Northwest Tennessee counties (Crockett, Dyer, Gibson, Haywood, Lake, Lauderdale, Obion and Madison).

ANTIDOTE FOR ANXIETY. Many folk are anxious these days. There is unrest over national security, moral degeneration, household income, job security, high and rising cost of health care and too much to mention. Philippians 4:6 says, "Don't be anxious (careful) about anything, pray about everything (in every situation)." We are also told to present our requests and needs before the throne of God. This is all done through Thanksgiving.

As we approach the Thanksgiving Season, you may find yourself with one of those folks above. In the midst of your anxiety, you may find it difficult to be thankful, but God says to be thankful in everything. Everything? You mean all those things against me? No, not me; I don't mean it but God does. He says to give thanks for all things- things we consider both good and bad.

God also says through the apostle, "Let your request be made known unto God." In the midst of our anxiety there is an antidote- an open throne, a listening God, and a praying heart. And that, God says, will bring peace to your heart (v7).

As we look toward Thanksgiving, let us reconsider our attitude and outlook. Let us be thankful for everything and enjoy that peace of mind and heart that comes through Christ Jesus, that peace which will keep us through every storm of life.

"The Lord is near (v5). He is only a prayer away. Said the Robin to the Sparrow, "I'd surely like to know why those anxious human beings rush around and worry so." Said the Sparrow to the Robin, "It must surely be that they have no heavenly Father such as watches you

The Wilderness Voice

By Pastor Tom Hoskins

WAR AND TERROR. There is seldom a time when war is not going on somewhere in the world. We often shudder with fear when it gets close to home. However, we should not be surprised. The world has been inundated with war every since Cain killed his brother. Really, before that, because the sin of Adam and Eve started the whole downward spiral of the world. When Jesus appeared upon the world scene, sin and evil that leads to war was alive and well. His own creation, the world of men, and his own chosen people rejected him. In fact, they murdered him on a cross. "He came into his own (own things, own people), and his own received him not."

When Jesus walked this earth, he let us know what was ahead. Listen: "And you shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that you be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom (Matt. 24: 6, 7). Of course, Jesus was right. It has been and is happening just as he said. Sin and hatred keeps the flames of war burning.

What then is the cure for this old world? One thing, Christ and his gospel. Why can't the leaders of the United States see this? Why can't state and local leaders see this? Why can't nations and the world leaders see this? Because the god of this world, Satan, has blinded their eyes and they do not want to see this. They refuse to be true followers of Christ and believers of the bible, God's sacred word.

What is ahead? Sadly, just more wars until the end of the age comes. Wars as terrible as evil, ungodly hearts can make them. The good news is, individuals may still come to Christ, escape hell, and gain heaven and eternal Clinton Place PROUDLY conveys our latest success story---Ms. Stella "Tillie" Coffman!!! Tillie, as she is so fondly known, was hospitalized due to a fracture sustained in a fall. Following her hospital discharge, she came to Clinton Place for her short-term rehab programming.

Tillie received both Occupational and Physical Therapies at our Center where she diligently worked on skilled exercises for both upper and lower body strengthening, transfers, mobility, and activity tolerance for daily living tasks. Through her motivation, her determination, nursing staff, and the skills of our therapy department, Tillie achieved her short-term and long-term goals as well as her personal goal to return home in less than seven weeks!!!

We are honored to have been a part of her Rehab to Home programming. What a delightful, inspirational and dedicated woman she is!! Thank you Tillie, for allowing us to assist you, to become personally acquainted with you and are honored by the trust you placed in us for your rehab needs. The staff at Clinton Place hopes you are doing well, enjoying your family, and cooking those "famous green beans"!!! We love you!!!
