The Amish Cook

By Gloria Yoder

"Would you like to help me bake cookies?" I asked Julia and her six-year-old cousin Japheth who was here visiting.

"Yes! Yes!" came the excited responses.

"Okay, you may go wash your hands," I directed.

"Soon Julia and Japheth were unwrapping six sticks of butter and placing them in a small bowl.

Next they helped me measure out the needed amounts of sugar in a larger bowl. In the meantime I had a 23-quart canner on the stove with tomato juice that I was turning into pizza sauce. All of that would have to be canned when it was done.

"Now you may dump the softened butter into a bowl with sugar and then mix it well," I instructed. As Japheth dumped the 6 sticks of butter from the bowl it was in he remarked: "these seasonings smell funny" I smiled and passed it off. He probably smells the Sucanat," I thought to myself. Sucanat is a natural sugar that I sometimes use as a replacement for brown sugar.

My mind kept going as I thought of how much I enjoy working with children and teaching them new things such as baking cookies or whatever. Moments later I was horrified to discover my little stainless steel bowl where I had dumped my pizza sauce seasonings was empty. I stared at it. It took me a moment or two to register what had hap-

The rates contained in this notice are the rates proposed by Duke Energy Kentucky; however, the Commission may order rates to be charged that differ from the proposed rates contained in this notice. Such action may result in a rate for consumers other than the rates in this notice.

Any corporation, association, or person may, by written request, request to intervene. If the Commission does not receive a written request for intervention within thirty (30) days of this initial notice, the Commission may take final action on the application. Requests to intervene should be submitted to the Kentucky Public Service Commission, P. O. Box 615, 211 Sower Boulevard, Frankfort, Kentucky 40602-0615, and shall set forth the grounds for the request including the status and interest of the party.

Intervenors may obtain copies of the application and other filings made by Duke Energy Kentucky by contacting Ms. Minna Rolfes-Adkins at 139 East Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202 or by telephone at (513) 287-4356. A copy of the application and other filings made by Duke Energy Kentucky is available for public inspection through the Commission's website at <http://psc.ky.gov>, at the Commission's office in Frankfort, Kentucky, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and at the following Company offices: 4580 Olympic Boulevard, Erlanger, Kentucky 41018. Comments regarding the application may be submitted to the Public Service Commission through its website, or by mail at the following Commission address.
