lifetime in the moving industry, could give anyone directions wherever they needed to go. He was a longtime member of the Greater Dayton YMCA and the AGONIS Club. Gerry never knew a stranger, loved a good story, pulled for the Flyers and the Bengals through thick and thin, and knew everything was better with extra whipped cream on top. In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to Roger Bacon High School, the West Carrollton YMCA, or Hospice of Dayton. Family will receive visitors Thursday, April 11 from 4–8 p.m. at Westbrook Funeral Home, Kettering. Mass of Christian Burial to be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday April 12 at St. Henry Parish, Dayton.

Robert L. Williams

CINCINNATI - Robert L. Williams, 73, of Evendale, OH. Beloved husband of 48 years to Constance (Marhefka); Devoted father of Amanda Frankel and son-in-law Matthew; Loving grandfather of Ava and Brody; passed away April 6, 2019. He is survived by brother William and wife Fran (Lancaster, MA), sister Janice Fernald and husband Chuck (Binghamton, NY), many nieces and nephews. He is predeceased by father William Williams; mother Catherine (Morgan), step-mother Carrie (Edwards); son Bill. Bob, an Army veteran, served in Vietnam. Formerly from Johnson City, NY, he attended New Mexico Highlands University where he formed lifelong friendships with four TKS brothers, and received a Bachelors in Business degree from Binghamton University. He joined the Raymond Corporation and soon after was owner and CEO of Storage Concepts with dealerships in Columbus, Louisville and Cincinnati. He was known as a man of integrity to his peers. Bob had a love of golf and was a member of Clovernook Country Club. For 29 years he formed many friendships there and was known for his wit, kindness and "roasting" abilities. Bob was one of best "chippers" ever! He was the most honest and generous man, mentor to many and respected by more. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Robert's memory to Evans Scholars, c/o Clovernook Country Club, 2035 West Galbraith Rd, Cincinnati, OH 45239 or Hospice of Cincinnati, 4310 Cooper Road, Blue Ash, OH 45242. Visitation at Mihovk-Rosenacker Funeral Home, Blue Ash, Thurs. April 11 from 6-8 pm. Mass of Christian Burial at St. Michaels Church, Sharonville, Fri. April 12, 10 am. www.mrfh.com

$150 million state-of-the-art live and historical racing venue in Oak Grove, Kentucky. The site is outside Fort Campbell, the sprawling Army post on the Kentucky-Tennessee state line.

Planned are up to 1,500 historical racing machines beginning next year, a 125-room hotel, a 1,200-seat grandstand and event space for indoor events, a 3,000-person outdoor amphitheater and stage and a state-of-the-art equestrian center including indoor and outdoor arenas. Historical racing machines resemble video gambling machines and offer bets on past horses races, keeping the names of the horses and the race secret.
