NOTICE CONCERNING ALLEY BETWEEN BROADWAY STREET AND ATHERTON STREET IN LIVERMORE, KENTUCKY

This is Notice that the City of Livermore, Kentucky, acting by and through the City Council, has been requested to close the unnamed alley which runs north and south, and which lies within the limits of the City, between Broadway Street and Atherton Street. The City had a first reading of 01-2021-01 on December 10, 2020 and will further consider the request and take action on it at the regularly scheduled meeting of the City Council on January 14, 2021. Any person who is affected by the potential closing of the alley or who otherwise objects to the closing of the alley may speak at the scheduled meeting.

Business/Community Leader Representatives Needed

The McLean County School District is in the process of reconvening the local facilities planning committee. This committee, which will study information about the district's construction needs, includes three (3) at-large business/community members selected by the local board of education. If you are a resident of McLean County, and you are interested in serving on this committee, please send a letter of interest to McLean County Board of Education, ATTN: Ashley Troutman, Director of Facilities, PO Box 245, Calhoun, KY 42327 or email your letter of interest to ashley.troutman@mclean.kyschools.us. Letters will be accepted through Friday, January 15, 2021
