CENTRAL KENTUCKY COMMUNITY ACTION COUNCIL, INC.
Do you need assistance with your heating costs?
 Beginning January 10, 2022, your local Community Action Office will be assisting families of low-income with the LIHEAP CRISIS Program. The program will end March 31, 2022 or sooner if funds are expended.
 To be eligible for Crisis funds you must be in a heating crisis. You must have a past due/disconnect notice from the electric or natural gas company, or be out of bulk fuel within 4 days if using propane, fuel oil or kerosene, or wood, or a formal eviction notice from your landlord if heating expenses are included in the rent.
 The family income level must be at or below the 150% federal poverty level. The benefit levels are up to $400.00 for natural gas or electric and/or up to 200 gallons of propane, fuel oil or kerosene or 2 cords of wood. Based on the availability of funding.
 You will need; ID, proof of income for the entire family for the previous month (pay stubs, employer verification, award letters), and social security numbers, birth dates for all in household, and a past due/disconnect notice or bulk fuel statement. Applicants heating with propane, fuel oil, kerosene or wood must verify their physical address.
 Our offices are open, COVID19 regulations are in place. Please contact your local Community Action Office for instructions.
 LIHEAP is a statewide initiative sponsored by Community Action Kentucky in partnership with the Cabinet for Health and Family Services (CHFS).
