

RRWD Board goes over financial statements each month and has to approve all bills paid. The Board also is provided a folder with all business (new/old) that needs attention. The Board is made aware of any customer complaints to make better informed decisions on how issues should be handled.