

The Board and Manager at Rattlesnake Ridge are in a project to install zone meters in all of Rattlesnake Ridge's service areas to aid in finding water leaks and to get a better look at problem areas. We are expecting this project to be complete in 2022 as we are waiting on state agencies to approve everything which most have and our Engineering firm has everything ready and ready to bid project.