RE: Application of Louisville Gas and Electric Company For An Order Authorizing the Issuance of Indebtedness
Case No. 2022-00007

Dear Ms. Bridwell:

On March 2, 2022, Louisville Gas and Electric Company (“LG&E”) filed an application with the Kentucky Public Service Commission (“Commission”) in the above-referenced matter requesting, in pertinent part, authority to incur additional debt not to exceed a total of $700 million in the form of First Mortgage Bonds, Intermediate Term Financing, or a combination of both through December 31, 2023. LG&E specifically requested authority in its Application to issue such financing in 2022 or 2023.¹

On April 14, 2022, the Commission issued a final Order. The Order references LG&E’s request to issue the financing in 2022 or 2023.² However, Ordering Paragraph 1 grants the requested financing authority only through December 31, 2022.³

LG&E believes Ordering Paragraph 1 contains a clerical error and the paragraph should be modified to read as follows: “LG&E is authorized to issue long-term debt in the form of First Mortgage Bonds, Intermediate Term Financings, or a combination of both, in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $700 million, from the date that this Order is entered through December 31, 2023.”

LG&E respectfully requests that the Commission issue a nunc pro tunc order, correcting the reference in Ordering Paragraph 1 to “2022” to be “2023.” It is well settled that the Commission has authority to correct clerical errors in its orders, so long as the mistake is plainly shown in the record.⁴ The record in this case shows the reference to “2022” in Ordering Paragraph 1 is an inadvertent clerical error and the year in Ordering Paragraph 1 should be “2023.”

In accordance with the Commission’s Order of July 22, 2021 in Case No. 2020-00085 (Electronic Emergency Docket Related to the Novel Coronavirus COVID-19), this is to certify that the electronic filing has been transmitted to the Commission on April 22, 2022; and that there are currently no parties in this proceeding that the Commission has excused from participation by electronic means.

Yours very truly,
