MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Corinth Water District and its commissioners (“District Respondents”), by counsel, respectfully request that the Public Service Commission grant them an additional thirty (30) days to submit written responses to the allegations contained in the Commission’s April 8, 2022 Order.

The grounds for this Motion are as follows:

The office of the undersigned, Dressman Benzinger LaVelle PSC, recently took over representation of District Respondents.<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to the Commission’s April 8, 2022 Order in this matter, District Respondents must submit written responses to the allegations contained in therein within twenty (20) days of that Order, which would be no later than April 28, 2022. Counsel for District Respondents believe additional time is required to review the records in this matter, as well as in the related matters of Commission Case Nos. 2021-00465 and 2021-00425 to adequately respond to the allegations set forth in the Commission’s April 8, 2022 Order.

For these reasons, District Respondents request an additional thirty (30) days to submit written responses to the allegations contained in the Commission’s April 8, 2022 Order that are
