SEBREE SOLAR II, LLC’S MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME

Comes now Sebree Solar II, LLC, (“Sebree II”), by and through counsel, and does hereby respectfully move the Kentucky Siting Board on Electric Generation and Transmission Siting (“Siting Board”) to allow it an additional fourteen days to respond to Siting Board Staff’s Request for Information. In support of this motion, Sebree II states as follows:

1. On April 29, 2026, Sebree II filed a request for the Siting Board to allow a non-controlling equity investment transaction, which is similar to the Tax and Back Leverage Financing that was approved by the Siting Board on June 11, 2025.¹

2. On June 22, 2026, Siting Board Staff issued its Request for Information which directed responses to be filed on June 30, 2026.

3. The NextEra Energy Resources, LLC (“NEER”) personnel responsible for responding to requests for information regarding financial transactions and equity investments have been unavailable to respond to the requests for information due to previously scheduled vacations and the upcoming holiday. There are not other available personnel with the knowledge required to provide complete responses to the Siting Board Staff regarding the proposed financial transactions.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, Sebree II respectfully requests a fourteen-day extension to file responses to Siting Board Staff's Requests for Information. Sebree II will provide responses on July 13, 2026.

This 29th day of June 2026.

Respectfully submitted,
