Subject: RE: KY-PSC Electronic Filing Center Notification for Case #2022-00186

Dear Jenny,

I suspect that one reason I misread the PSC's Order as requiring my appearance in -00186 is that I was the filer of the Tap-On Tariff filing (-00192) and did not think that it would be necessary for me to further establish my involvement with the proceeding.

Furthermore, I would be interested, still, to receive notice of the proceedings in the LFUCG case (-00186).

Finally, I am in California, and wonder if I might have an extension of the 7 days allotted for an appearance, until I return to my office next week.

Can you confirm the above?

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Henry Smith

Subject: FW: KY-PSC Electronic Filing Center Notification for Case #2022-00186

Counsel,

The letter below was filed into Case No. 2022-00186, but upon review, it appears it was actually intended to serve as your entry of appearance as ordered in Case No. 2022-00192. Could you please confirm that? If that is correct, could you please re-send the letter, referencing Case No. 2022-00192 as the correct case for filing, and noting the previous letter that incorrectly referenced Case 2022-00186 and the date it was filed – so that our filing division can take that letter out of the incorrect file and ensure the entry of appearance is filed in the correct file.

Feel free to contact me with any questions.

Regards,
Jenny Fell
