Basketball teams participate on media day

BY BRIAN DAVIS

The Franklin-Simpson Lady Cats and Wildcats Basketball teams participated in the annual Paul Gray Prep Sports Basketball Media Day at the Bowling Green High School Auditorium.

Lady Cats' head coach Ashley Taylor along with her players Ashanti Johnson, Malaya Partinger, Hadley Turner, and Jakaya Warfield (all seniors), and Wildcats' head coach Dee Spencer, along with his players Jalen Briscoe, DeMarcus Hogan, and Gabe Jones (all seniors) answered questions from the media about preparation and games for the upcoming season.

"This was great. The Paul Gray Prep Sports Media Day does a great job for girls' basketball. It lets these girls talk about basketball, their hard work, and highlight what they do day in and day out for the program."

"It's a fun event for everyone," Wildcats' head coach Dee Spencer said. "You're getting kids out of their comfort zone. I think it is really good to get the guys to participate in something like this. My guys were nervous but it was good for them. They need something like this. Experiencing talking like this and how to handle themselves. I am glad they got to do that. We had a good time talking about our team."

Both teams are preparing for their season opener on Tue. Nov. 29th. The Lady Cats will play at the Hart County Lady Raiders in the opening round of the Class 2-A Tournament while the Wildcats will host the Monroe County Falcons in a JV/Varsity doubleheader at the F-S Gym.

4 teams compete for state championship berth

BY BRIAN DAVIS

The 2022 UK HealthCare Sports Medicine State Football Playoffs are now down to four region championship teams.

State semifinal games will be based on each team's RPI, and their strength of schedule with the four remaining teams seeded one through four.

The semi-state semifinal round game has the Boyle County Rebels, the defending Class 4-A state champions, defeating the Lexington Catholic Knights, the District 5 regular season champions, 41-21. They will host the Central Yellow Jackets as the district 4 regular season champions upsetting the Logan County Cougars 61-19.

In the other semi-state semifinal round portion of the playoffs, the Corbin Redhounds, the District 7 regular season champions, defeated the Johnson Central Golden Eagles 35-21. They will host the Franklin County Flyers who also went on the road and upset the Warren East Raiders, the District 2 regular season champions, 49-21.

- Franklin County (8-5) v. Corbin (13-0)
- Central (9-4) v. Boyle

County (11-2) Corbin is ranked number one overall in RPI with a .75319 with Boyle County ranked second overall with an RPI of .68600. Central is ranked 13th overall, with an RPI of .56217, and Franklin County is ranked 14th overall with an RPI of .54007.

The two semi-state winners will play for the Class 4-A state championship on Fri. Dec. 2nd at 7 p.m in Lexington at Kroger's Field on the campus of the University of Kentucky.
