June 2022 RFP respondent:

The Inflation Reduction Act of 2022 (IRA) was signed into law shortly before the LG&E/KU June 2022 RFP responses were due on August 17, 2022. If your company has any additional updates to your RFP response based on further consideration of the IRA's provisions, please provide these updates by close of business Friday, September 30, 2022.

Thank you.

Good Morning,

I hope you're doing great. It looks like our pricing did not contemplate the IRA, it will take us approximately 4 weeks to include it in our pricing. Does that time work for you?

Thanks Linn! You beat me to the punch – I noticed I had omitted showing that size of Gage – Option 2 on the pricing table. The pricing for Gage – Option 2 is the same as Gage – Option 1. I'm attaching an addendum for your records as well as a revised version of the proposal. The only other change (shown in the addendum as well) is a better map of the projects we submitted.

Best,

Joe

Joe:

There appears to be a discrepancy between the written proposal and the data sheet for Gage-Option 2. The Data sheet lists 180 MW but the proposal does not have 180 MW pricing – only 115 MW pricing is shown. Please clarify.

Thanks, Linn

Linn,

Attached is an updated proposal letter considering the Inflation Reduction Act and an info sheet we are using for outreach before we file our Pre-Application Document (PAD) with FERC in October.

Also, we may get some expedited support from Andritz ( <https://www.andritz.com/hydro-en>) and hope to get data sheets back to you by Sept. 2nd.

Thanks,
Nate

Nathan:

Thanks for the follow-up regarding the delayed availability of the pumped hydro operating characteristics. From your proposal letter, we understand the project is still in the early stages of development with an anticipated commercial operation date as late as 2030. For responses to the current LG&E and KU June 2022 RFP, we need all project data specified in the RFP data sheets by Friday September 2, 2022 in order to perform a complete analysis and evaluation. If it's not possible for Rye Development to meet this deadline, we encourage you to submit a proposal to a future LG&E and KU RFP.
