Damon joined Stoll Keenon Ogden's Utility & Energy practice as Of Counsel in 2015 and serves clients through the firm's Hodgenville, Lexington and Louisville offices.

Before his time at SKO, Damon worked for decades in private practice and has provided legal representation to public utilities throughout Kentucky. He has focused primarily on water utilities, and his deep expertise in drinking water has earned him a reputation statewide as a go-to legal resource in this area. Damon is general counsel of the Kentucky Rural Water Association and has served in this capacity since 1979.

Given his substantial experience, Damon is frequently called upon to speak at training sessions sponsored by the Kentucky Rural Water Association, Division of Water, Utility Management Institute and other utility groups in the state.

Damon is highly active in the local community and serves as a board member of several nonprofit organizations. He is a past board member of the Kentucky Infrastructure Authority. He was a charter member, long-time board member and two-term board chairman of the Kentucky FFA Foundation.

Utility & Energy: Damon represents public utility clients before federal and state courts at the trial and appellate levels. He handles matters such as rate adjustments, transfers of control, financing and construction applications, and consumer complaint proceedings.

Jerry is Counsel to the Firm in SKO's Lexington office and is part of the Utility & Energy practice. He joined the firm in 2014, after working for more than 26 years at the Kentucky Public Service Commission (PSC) as a staff attorney, deputy general counsel and executive advisor.

Over the course of his career, Jerry has frequently appeared before the PSC in administrative proceedings involving electric, natural gas, water and sewer utility issues and has represented the PSC in state and federal courts. He also served as the PSC's representative in several interagency groups addressing water and wastewater issues. He drafted amendments to various provisions of Kentucky's public utility statutes and revisions to the PSC's administrative regulations.

From 2009-2013, Jerry was PSC's representative on the board of the Kentucky Infrastructure Authority. He developed and implemented the PSC's training program for water utility officials and was an instructor for that program.

Jerry is a frequent speaker on utility and local government issues before such organizations as the Kentucky Rural Water Association, Kentucky League of Cities, Kentucky Association of Counties and Utility Management Institute.

Along with his significant experience in the realm of civilian law, Jerry served for 27 years in the U.S. Army as a judge advocate before retiring at the rank of colonel in 2011. He occupied numerous roles on active duty and in a reserve status.

Utility & Energy: Jerry concentrates on public utility law in Kentucky, but also participates in general and commercial litigation, transactions, employment concerns, securities issues and mergers and acquisitions involving gas, electric and water companies. He handles all facets of regulatory matters, including the negotiation of complex agreements and representation before state agencies and courts.

Jeremy D. Baird, MS
Director of Agency Operations
Kentucky League of Cities

Jeremy Baird is the current Director of Agency Operations for the Kentucky League of Cities Insurance Agency where he oversees marketing, growth, and member education for all KLC Insurance Products and Services related to Property, Casualty, and WC. He also manages the KLC Bona Fide Health Trust which provides a stable environment for municipalities to obtain employee benefits.

Jeremy is celebrating his 12th year with KLC, during which time he has held numerous key roles including Employee Benefits Coordinator, Senior Marketing Agent, Marketing Agent, and Loss Control Consultant.

Before starting with KLC, he spent 9 years at the Kentucky School Boards Association.

Jeremy holds a BS degree from ECU in Occupational Safety and Health, along with an MS degree in Safety, Security, and Emergency Management. He also maintains a license as an insurance agent in Property, Casualty, Worker's Compensation, Health, and Life Insurance.

Jeremy has spent most of his life growing up in Eminence, Kentucky, but calls Somerset home today with his wife Tonya, three kids and dogs, Bokeh and Lucy. When not working with members, Jeremy cheers for the Reds despite their lack luster season and attends all the kids' activities he can.
