

SPECIAL CONTRACT FOR ELECTRIC SERVICE
BETWEEN KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY AND BLUEOVAL SK, LLC

This Special Contract for Electric Service (“BlueOval Contract” or “Contract”) is made and entered into effective as of the Effective Date by and between KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY, a Kentucky corporation (“Company”), and BlueOval SK, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Customer” and with Company each a “Party” and collectively “Parties”).

RECITALS

1. Company is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and owns and operates facilities for the generation, transmission and distribution of electric power and energy in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

2. Customer is a limited liability company, organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware with operations near Glendale, Kentucky.

3. Customer’s decision to locate its manufacturing operations in the Commonwealth of Kentucky was premised upon Company providing the electrical requirements for the Facility under the terms of this BlueOval Contract and up to 300 MW of Solar Generation.

4. Pursuant to the January 27, 2022 Order of the Commission in Case No. 2021-00462, Company has the exclusive right to provide Customer with retail electric service for all of Customer’s electric-consuming facilities at the Glendale Megasite.

5. Customer’s manufacturing operations will consist of two new plants for the manufacture of electric vehicle batteries to be constructed at the Glendale Megasite, with an expected combined demand of 260 MW and monthly load factors exceeding 95 percent. Customer expects to invest approximately $5.8 billion at the Glendale Megasite. Approximately

5,000 direct new high-paying jobs are expected to be created in connection with the Facility. It is anticipated that thousands of additional indirect jobs will be created as new suppliers locate in Kentucky to serve the Facility, and as local commercial businesses expand to serve the increased population. Local and state tax revenue will significantly increase.

6. Kentucky was one of many states competing for the Facility, and the availability of low-cost, reliable Electric Service and the option to obtain renewable generation were major considerations in Customer's selection of Kentucky.

7. The special contract rates and terms contained herein were an essential consideration for Customer locating the Facility in Company's service territory.

8. Customer's load is unique and unlike the load and consumption characteristics of Company's tariffed rate classes on file with the Commission, and therefore does not fit the rate characteristics of any of Company's current rate schedules approved by the Commission.

9. Customer and Company acknowledge that Customer has a renewable energy objective to obtain from Company up to 300 MW of Solar Generation and Customer and Company agree to negotiate in good faith a separate contract in the future to assist Customer in achieving that objective as provided in Article VIII hereof.

In recognition of (i) the economic development benefits to the local and state economy, (ii) the special load and consumption characteristics of Customer, and (iii) the need for the efficient use of existing utility generation and transmission facilities, Company agrees to provide Electric Service to Customer under the terms of this Contract and Appendix A hereto, subject to approval by the Commission.

The Electric Service that Company will provide to Customer pursuant to this Contract will provide benefits to Customer, Company, Company's other customers, and the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration for the promises and the mutual covenants herein contained, and on and subject to the terms and conditions herein contained, Company and Customer agree as set forth below.

The Electric Service shall be delivered and maintained reasonably close to constant voltage and frequency, as required by Company tariffs, and it shall be measured by meters owned and installed by Company and located at the Glendale Industrial Substation. Company shall have the right to enter the Glendale Industrial Substation to read and maintain its meters.

4.02 System Disturbances; Obligation for Damages.

(a) A "System Disturbance" shall be deemed to exist if the use of power by Customer directly or indirectly results in a risk of harm to human beings or material damage to or substantial interference with the functioning of the Kentucky Utilities System or operations of any customer of the Kentucky Utilities System. A System Disturbance includes but is not limited to (i) a level of current harmonic total demand distortion ("TDD") measured at the Delivery Point that exceeds the limits on TDD described in Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers Standard 519, Section 10, and (ii) a use of capacity and energy in such a manner that causes a current imbalance between phases greater than five percent (5%) at the Delivery Point.

ARTICLE V.
Firm Power

5.01 Maximum Contract Demand. Company will provide Customer with firm power up to the then-existing Maximum Contract Demand. The “Maximum Contract Demand” shall be 140 MW during the first year of the Term of this Contract and shall be 260 MW for each year thereafter.

5.03 Facilities To Provide Maximum Contract Demand. To provide the Maximum Contract Demand, Company will extend network service in and out of the new 345kV/138kV Glendale South substation via an existing 345kV transmission line (Brown North to Hardin County). Two new 138kV lines will exit the Glendale South Substation and terminate near the Facility at the new 138kV/24.7kV Glendale Industrial Substation. All facilities and equipment behind the Delivery Point, including the power transformers, will be determined by Customer according to its required voltage level of 24.7 kV.

ARTICLE VI.
Retail Service at Transmission Voltage

6.01 Rates. The rates for Electric Service to the Facility under this Contract are set forth in the attached and incorporated Appendix A. The rates set forth in Appendix A are subject to change in accordance with Orders of the Commission in future rate proceedings. The Basic Service Charge and Energy Charge rates in Appendix A will continue to be set at the otherwise applicable Rate RTS rates as those rates are changed by Commission Order. For rate adjustment proceedings occurring during the Term of the Contract, Company will not propose to recover demand-related fixed costs in the Contract's Energy Charge or Basic Service Charge. The Maximum Load Charges for the peak, intermediate and base periods contained in Appendix A may be adjusted by Commission Order at the same time as any future adjustment to the corresponding demand charges in Rate RTS. However, the percentage increases to the Maximum Load Charges for the peak, intermediate and base periods contained in Appendix A shall not exceed the percentage increases authorized for the corresponding demand charges in Rate RTS.

ARTICLE VII.
Excess Facilities

7.01 Excess Facilities Charge. During the Term of this Contract, at Customer's request, Company will construct certain facilities, including lines and equipment in addition to or in substitution for the normal facilities required to render basic electric service and are dedicated to serving Customer. 8.03 Customer and Company agree to negotiate the terms of any separate bilateral special contract in good faith to assist Customer in achieving its renewable energy objective. If Customer and Company enter into such a contract, the terms of such contract shall permit the energy produced and delivered pursuant to such special contract to offset the amount of the peak and intermediate demand, coincident with the solar production, delivered and billed in this Contract. Such special contract shall be subject to the approval of the Commission as required.

9.03 Monthly Bill. The total amount charged to Customer for a billing month under this Contract ("Monthly Bill") shall be the sum of (i) the charges provided for in Article VI and Appendix A and applicable adjustments therein, (ii) applicable charges for Excess Facilities provided for in Article VII, and applicable charges or credits, if any, for renewable energy pursuant to Article VIII.

9.04 Discontinuance of Service. If payment is not made on or before the Due Date as set forth in Appendix A, Company may discontinue service to Customer subject to the procedures and notice required by its Tariff Sheet 105 or any subsequent revision thereto. Any such discontinuance of service shall not relieve Customer of any of its obligations under this Contract or limit Company's other remedies under this Contract.

9.05 Dispute. If Customer has a bona fide dispute as to any portion of a Monthly Bill, whether as a result of metering-related issues or otherwise, Customer shall notify Company of such dispute on or before the Due Date, providing information regarding the disputed amount and the basis for the dispute. Customer shall pay any undisputed amounts of such Monthly Bill on or before the Due Date. The Parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute. If the Parties are unable to resolve the dispute and it is ultimately determined that some or all of the disputed amount was properly billed, Customer shall pay the amount determined to be owed within ten (10) business days of such determination.

9.06 Deposit. Before the Effective Date of this Contract, Customer shall provide a cash deposit or other guaranty in a form acceptable to Company as prescribed by the Company's Terms and Conditions Sheet No. 102, and the handling of that deposit or other form of security and adjustments thereto shall be subject to the terms of Sheet No. 102 and any subsequent revisions.

18.09 Survival. The obligations and agreements of the Parties provided in Articles XI, XII, XIII, XVII and XVIII , and any provisions expressly indicated herein as surviving, shall, to the extent applicable, survive the termination of this Contract. Obligations of a Party accrued under this Contract on or before the date this Contract is terminated or otherwise expires shall survive the termination or expiration of this Contract.

18.10 Rules of Construction. In construing this Contract, the following principles shall be followed:

(a) No consideration shall be given to the fact or presumption that one Party had a greater or lesser hand in drafting this Contract;

(b) Examples shall not be construed to limit, expressly or by implication, the matter they illustrate;

(c) The word “includes” and its syntactical variants mean “includes, but is not limited to” and corresponding syntactical variant expressions;

(d) A defined term has its defined meaning throughout this Contract, regardless of whether it appears before or after the place in this Contract where it is defined;

(e) The plural shall be deemed to include the singular, and vice versa; and each gender shall be deemed to include the other genders.

(f) References to any person or entity shall include such person or entity and their successors and permitted assigns and transferees.

(g) Reference to any agreement (including this Contract) or exhibit or schedule means such agreement, exhibit or schedule as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof and thereof.

(h) References to any law include any law as that law may be amended or interpreted (which interpretation is binding on the Parties) after the Effective Date.

(i) Where a word or phrase is specifically defined, other grammatical forms of such word or phrase have corresponding meanings, and, unless the context requires otherwise, the words “herein,” “hereunder,” and “hereof” refer to the provisions of this Contract as a whole and not to any particular portion or provision of this Contract.

(j) All references to a “notice” herein means a Notice given, and deemed received, in accordance with the provisions of Section 18.04.

ARTICLE XIX.
Liability and Force Majeure

19.01 Force Majeure Event. In the event a Party's performance of this Contract is limited or prevented in whole or in part by Acts of God; strikes or labor disturbances; inability to secure coal, fuel, or other materials, supplies, or equipment from usual sources; acts of the public enemy; wars, blockades, insurrections, or cybersecurity attacks; riots; vandalism; epidemics, landslides, lightning, earthquakes, fires, storms, floods, washouts or other revulsions of nature; arrests and restraints of the government (whether federal, state, or local, or civil or military); civil disturbances; explosions; breakage of or accident to machinery, equipment or transmission lines; inability to obtain necessary materials, supplies, or permits due to existing or future rules, regulations, orders, laws or proclamations of governmental authorities (whether federal, state, or local, or civil or military); or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the Parties hereto, whether of the kind herein enumerated or otherwise (each a "Force Majeure Event"), the obligations of both Parties shall be suspended to the extent made necessary by such Force Majeure Event; provided that the affected Party gives notice and reasonably full particulars of such Force Majeure Event, first by telephone and then confirmed in writing, to the other Party within a reasonable time after the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event. Each Party will, in the event it experiences a Force Majeure Event, use all commercially reasonable efforts to eliminate the effects of such Force Majeure Event on its performance as soon as reasonably possible; provided that nothing contained herein may be construed to require a Party to prevent or to settle a labor dispute against its will.

19.02 Effect of Force Majeure. Neither Company nor Customer shall be liable to the other Party for damages caused by a Force Majeure Event, as defined in, and contemplated by, Section 19.01 of this Contract. It is expressly understood and agreed by the Parties that economic conditions, such as a downturn in the market for the product or products produced at any of the Customer's facilities, do not constitute an event of Force Majeure. Settlement of strikes and lockouts shall be wholly within the discretion of the Party having the difficulty. An event or events of Force Majeure shall not relieve Company or Customer of liability in the event of its concurring negligence or in the event of failure of either to use reasonable means to remedy the situation and remove the cause in an adequate manner and with reasonable dispatch. An event or events of Force Majeure shall not relieve either Company or Customer from its obligation to pay amounts due hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have caused this Contract to be duly executed the day and year last written below.
