Bookkeeper Ashley Hood presented the August 2023 sewer financial information for review. Motion was made to accept the August 2023 sewer financial information Secretary/Treasurer Paul Shawn Skidmore, second Chairman Ronald Everman.

Bookkeeper Ashley Hood stated she just received a letter for Commissioner terms from Beechfork. Stated terms will end in December from here on out.

Superintendent Kendell Knox stated the Board of Commissioners would need to choose whether or not to keep Gary Baker as a Commissioner for Beechfork on behalf of Powell's Valley Water District that he is ill at the moment. Board of Commissioners agreed to keep Gary Baker as long as we can and will keep names in mind for future reference.

Randy Ledford stated we needed to hire someone for field labor. Sam Bolin was next on the list to hire in. Board of Commissioners agreed to start him out at $15.00 an hour, will start getting benefits after 6-month probation. Bookkeeper Ashley Hood stated she would call him and see if he could come by the office to talk about the position.

Superintendent Kendell Knox stated there would be a sewer extension up at Summit and Clover Valley. At this time there is still no water extensions.

With no other business Chairman Ronald Everman adjourned the meeting.
