Sheriff's Report

Deputy Nathan Reinhardt investigated a multi-vehicle accident without injuries. At 9:07 a.m. on 3/11/2024 Billy Wilson of Falmouth was operating a 2002 Nissan Frontier traveling west on Ed Monroe Road when a 2015 Peterbilt Motors 389 semi, operated by Reuban Neal of Loveland, OH traveling east sideswiped each other near Snake Hill Road. Only Wilson's vehicle sustained minor to moderate damage to the driver's side tail light. Both vehicles remained in operation.

Deputy Nathan Reinhardt investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 7:07 a.m. on 3/18/2024 Devin Rarriek of Falmouth was operating a 2013 Nissan 370Z traveling north on KY HWY 17 when a deer ran in front of the vehicle. Rarriek was unable to stop before striking the animal. His vehicle sustained moderate damage but remained in operation.

Deputy Brian Locknane investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 1:00 a.m. on 3/18/2024 Deputy Locknane located a 2006 Ford Escape off the side of Lock Road where it had struck a tree. The vehicle was not running and was unoccupied. Dispatch attempted to contact the owner, Dylan Adams of Falmouth, with no success. The owner's wallet was found outside the vehicle on the ground, so it was placed in the vehicle along with a business card and accident number. The vehicle sustained moderate to severe damage and was removed by Midwest Towing.

Deputy Nathan Reinhardt investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 6:13 a.m. on 3/18/2024 Thomas Hartig of Falmouth was operating a 2020 Chevrolet Equinox traveling south on KY HWY 159 when he struck a deer in the roadway. Hartig's vehicle sustained moderate damage, but remained operable.

Deputy Nathan Reinhardt investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 8:30 a.m. on 3/18/2024 Jim Osei of Falmouth was operating a 2021 Nissan Rogue Sport traveling north on KY HWY 159 when he lost control and ran off the right side of the roadway into an embankment. Osei's vehicle sustained moderate to severe damage and was removed by Midwest Towing.

Deputy Nathan Reinhardt investigated a single vehicle accident with injuries. At 4:23 p.m. on 3/19/2024 Deputy Reinhardt witnessed a 2004 Yamaha YZF-R1 motorcycle driving recklessly as it was leaving the Shell Station in Falmouth, so he headed the same direction in attempt to locate the motorcycle. While Deputy Reinhardt was stopped at the intersection of Hwy 22, a witness pulled next to the him and advised that a motorcycle had lost control while heading north and drove through a fence just up the road. Upon approaching the scene, the deputy witnessed both the motorcycle and the operator, Shawn Collins of Erlanger lying on the ground off the road. Collins was treated by EMS at the scene and then air cared to the hospital. Approximately 40 feet of fence was damaged and the vehicle sustained very severe damage. Midwest removed the motorcycle from the scene.

Deputy Kyle Florer investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 9:48 p.m. on 3/20/2024 Deputy Florer arrived to an unoccupied 2003 Mercedes-Benz C240 on the northbound shoulder of KY 17 N in Butler. A witness said he heard the accident while in his garage and came out to see the operator of the vehicle disappearing inside his residence to retrieve a jacket. Since the vehicle was abandoned, a search was conducted which revealed a used syringe as well as court documents that match the registered owner, William F. Jones of Falmouth. The witness' description of the operator matched the owner. Units patrolled the area, but were unable to locate the operator/owner. The vehicle sustained moderate damage and was removed by Midwest Towing.

Sheriff Jared Brewer investigated a multi-vehicle accident without injuries. At 12:43 p.m. on 3/21/2024 Virgil I. Mallicoat Jr of Williamstown was operating a 1996 Ford F150 Series pickup backing out of a parking spot when a Falmouth FD Tanker Truck, operated by Jeffrey Charlot of Falmouth struck Mallicoat's vehicle. Charlot stated he turned left behind the firehouse with his emergency lights on but no sirens and did not see Mallicoat's vehicle backing out. Damage to both vehicles was minor and they both remained in operation.

Deputy Eric Conrad investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 2:30 p.m. on 3/21/2024 Glenn Johnson of Butler was operating a 2023 Toyota Cam traveling south on U.S. 27 when a deer jumped out into the roadway. Johnson stated he swerved to miss the deer and ran off the roadway. His vehicle sustained moderate to severe damage and was towed by Silver Grove.

Deputy Eric Conrad investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 3:53 p.m. on 3/21/2024 Dennis Miller of Falmouth was operating a 1999 Lexus RX300 traveling south on KY 159 when the rear driver side wheel came off his vehicle, causing it to spin around and go off the road. The vehicle sustained moderate damage and was towed by Midwest Towing.

Deputy Eric Conrad investigated a single vehicle accident without injuries. At 7:57 a.m. on 3/22/2024 Justin Hitch of Alexandria was operating a 2000 Ford Ranger traveling south on KY 10 when he fell asleep and went off the roadway and hit a tree head on causing the tree to knock over a mailbox. Fire and EMS were dispatched, but Hitch refused transport. The vehicle was severely damaged and was removed by Miles Towing.

Sheriff Jared Brewer investigated a multi-vehicle accident without injuries. At 1:38 p.m. on 3/26/2024 William D. Thompson of Covington was operating a 2017 Kenworth Motors T800 traveling south on Licking River bridge on U.S. 27 met a vehicle carrying a wide load and the side mirrors made contact. The wide load vehicle did not stop and Thompson stated it was possible that the driver was unaware contact was made. Damage to Thompson's vehicle consisted of very minor damage to the paint on the mirror and it remained in service.

Think Safe Be Safe: Poison Prevention Tips

Home Safety Council research shows that poisoning is the second leading cause of unintentional injury related death in the home. According to the American Association of Poison Control Centers (AAPCC) more than 92 percent of the 2.4 million poison exposures reported in the latest year studied occurred in the home. Yet, the Home Safety Council found that most families are not taking the appropriate precautions to reduce the risk of poison exposure.

Poison prevention is for everyone, not just children. The Home Safety Council's poisoning prevention advice can help individuals and families keep their homes safer from poisonous and toxic products, chemicals and gases, regardless of the ages of the occupants. Homes with young children need to take extra precautions. Follow these guidelines to keep your family safe from poison exposures at home:

Be Prepared

• Know to call 1-800-222-1222 if someone takes poison. Call the Help number if you have a question about poisons.

• Keep the number by every phone. Call 911 if someone won't wake up, is having trouble breathing or is having seizures. If the person seems okay, but you think they may have taken poison call 1-800-222-1222.

• Carbon Monoxide (CO) is a deadly gas that you cannot see or smell. The gas collects when fuels are burned.

• Have a service person check heaters, stoves and fireplaces every year to see that they work well.

• Have a carbon monoxide (CO) detector near the bedrooms. This will tell you if the gas level is too high. Push the "test" button on the detector so everyone will know the sound it makes.

• Know the things in your home that are poisons.

• Read the labels of the products you use in your home. If the label has the words "Caution", "Warning", "Poison" or "Danger", keep out of reach of children and lock them away. Read the labels and follow directions when using these.

Protect Young Children

• Take all medicines

and medical supplies out of purses, pockets and drawers. Keep children and pets away from the garbage.

• Put them in a cabinet with a child safety lock.

• Have child safety caps on all chemicals, medications and cleaning products.

• Lock all dangerous items and products in a cabinet. Cosmetics (make-up) can be poison too.

• Keep medicines and cleaning products in their original containers with the original labels intact.

• Store all dangerous products away from food and drinks. Be especially aware of products with fruit shown on the labels, which could be confused as being edible.

• Keep each family member's medicines in a separate place, so they don't get mixed up. Carefully measure doses and track medicine given/received.

In the Bathroom

• Keep all chemicals, cleaners, medicines, cosmetics and other toxic and/or caustic products in their original containers with the original labels intact.

• Have a medicine cabinet you can lock.

• Be safe. Throw away medicines if you don't use them or they are old or the date has expired.

• Do not put medicines in the sink or toilet. They can poison our water and make people and animals sick. Put the medicine in the garbage.

• Take off the label before you throw the medicine container away if it has your name or any information about you.

• Wrap the container in paper or plastic bag. Close the bag and put

• If you have pills, crush them before you throw them out. Mix the pieces into old coffee grounds, sand, or kitty litter.

• Call your Health Department. Ask if there is a place to take old medicines.

In the Garage and Storage Areas

• Chemicals, fuels (such as gasoline), car fluids (such as anti-freeze, pesticides (such as bug killers), and lawn and garden products (such as fertilizer) are poison.

• Keep products in their original containers. Close the lid and put all dangerous products away after using them.

• Store them where children cannot reach them; use locks on cabinets.

• Close and put away dangerous products after using them.

• Clean up spills as soon as they happen.

When Using Motors

• Carbon Monoxide (CO) is a deadly gas that you cannot see or smell. The gas collects when fuels are burned.

• Never run a motor or vehicle engine inside an attached garage, as deadly carbon monoxide can enter your home this way.

• Use portable generators outside only. Do not use it inside your home or garage.

• Use a barbecue grill outside only. Do not use it in your home or garage.

Zebra captured near Seattle after gallivanting around Cascade foothills

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SEATTLE — A zebra that has been hoofing through the foothills of western Washington for days was recaptured Friday evening, nearly a week after she escaped with three other zebras from a trailer near Seattle.

Local residents and animal control officers corralled the zebra named "Shug" in the community of Riverbend, about 30 miles east of Seattle, the Regional Animal Services of King County wrote on its website.

"The zebra seemed to be in good condition despite her nearly week-long adventure in the woods," the agency wrote.

Shug was one of four zebras that escaped as they were being transported from Washington to Montana last Sunday.

INSPECTION PERIOD FOR THE PROPERTY TAX ASSESSMENT ROLL

The GRANT County real property tax roll will be opened for inspection from May 6th through May 20th, 2024. Under the supervision of the property valuation administrator (PVA) or one of the deputies, any person may inspect the tax roll.

This is the January 1, 2024, assessment on which state, county, and school taxes for 2024 will be due about September 15, 2024.

The tax roll is in the office of the property valuation administrator in the county courthouse and may be inspected between the hours 8:00AM and 4:00PM Monday through Friday and 9:00am to Noon on Saturday's.

Any taxpayer desiring to appeal an assessment on real property made by the PVA must first request a conference with the PVA or a designated deputy. The conference may be held prior to or during the inspection period. Written documentation supporting your opinion of value will continue to be required. However, you will be instructed on the best method to submit your documentation after contacting our office regarding your request to have a conference. More specific instructions regarding how conferences will be held this year are will be posted at the entrance to the PVA's office, located at: 101 N. MAIN STREET, WILLIAMSTOWN KY 41097.

Any taxpayer still aggrieved by an assessment on real property, after the conference with the PVA or designated deputy, may appeal to the county board of assessment appeals.

The appeal must be filed with the county clerk's office no later than one work day following the conclusion of the inspection period (May 21st). Please contact the county clerk's office to receive instructions on the method the office is using to accept appeals this year and to obtain a form that can be used to file your appeal.

Any taxpayer failing to appeal to the county board of assessment appeals, or failing to appear before the board, either in person or by designated representative, will not be eligible to appeal directly to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals.

Appeals of personal property assessments shall not be made to the county board of assessment appeals. Personal property taxpayers shall be served notice under the provisions of KRS 132.450(4) and shall have the protest and appeal rights granted under the provisions of KRS 131.110.

The following steps should be taken when a taxpayer does not agree with the assessed value of personal property as determined by the property valuation administrator.

- (1) He must list under protest (for certification) what he believes to be the fair cash value of his property.
- (2) He must file a written protest directly with the Department of Revenue, Office of Property Valuation within 30 days from the date of the notice of assessment.
- (3) This protest must be in accordance with KRS 131.110.
- (4) The final decision of the Department of Revenue may be appealed to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals.

FACT CHECK

Did this GOP candidate donate to Hillary Clinton?

Jolene Almendarez

Cincinnati Enquirer
USA TODAY NETWORK

One Northern Kentucky race is getting especially nasty as two GOP candidates battle before the primary next month.

Republican candidates Ed Massey and T.J. Roberts are running in District 66, a Republican stronghold covering northern Boone County.

The Enquirer interviewed both candidates about the big issues in the race: immigration, Donald Trump, abortion, school vouchers.

Now, we're fact-checking some of the claims against them based on what we've seen from the Boone County Republican committee, social media posts, and from people who've shared information directly with The Enquirer.

Massey donated to Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign in 2008.

True.
The Boone County Republican committee censured Massey in January and correctly reported Massey had donated money to Democrats. According to the Federal Election Commission, Ed Massey donated $250 to Hillary Clinton in 2008.

Massey said that money was the cost of admission to attend an event to hear Clinton speak at his friend Nathan Smith's Fort Mitchell home. Smith has been a Democrat party leader and fundraiser for decades.

Ed Massey and T.J. Roberts are running for state House representative in District 66, which represents the northern part of Boone County. KAREEM ELGAZZAR AND LIZ DUFOUR

"I didn't even meet her, didn't shake her hand. I just heard her speak and was there. That's it. I've never supported her. I've never voted for her. I've never campaigned for her," he said.

"That was before Benghazi. I think she's appalling. I think she's disgraceful. But at the time, I was just trying to meet a presidential candidate. I'm an informed, I would like to think, intelligent, educated voter," he said.

Donations to Democrats Ben Chandler, a former U.S. Representative, and Jack Conway, former Kentucky Attorney General, were also for ticketed political events, he said.

Roberts posted a meme making fun of dead children in the days after a mass shooting in Uvalde, Texas.

True.
Roberts told The Enquirer he posted the following meme within a few days of the mass shooting at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas where 19 children and two adults were killed:

"That was stupid. It was a remarkably insensitive and tone-deaf way of me trying to convey that at the end of the day: the Constitution has spoken on some things," he said. "Gun rights are one of those things and, realistically speaking, there's no gun control policy that would have solved that problem. It was a very, very stupid tone-deaf way to say it."

Massey voted to give a $35 million loan to an abortion clinic.

False.
The Republican censure resolution declared that Massey "voted to give $35 million to an abortion clinic." Here's what happened.

In 2020, Massey was among many Republicans, including former Republican Gov. Matt Bevin, who supported a $35 million loan to help the University of Louisville bail out Jewish Hospital.

At the time, the school had to offer training in abortion procedures to maintain its accreditation. Medical students could opt out of the training. EMW Women's Surgical Center offered that training, though, no public money was spent to facilitate the training. Doctors who performed abortions at the facility were paid separately by the private clinic, The Courier-Journal reported.

The Boone County Republican committee cited his vote on the bailout in their resolution to censure him for, "long-standing support for left-wing politics, politicians, and policies, and further calls upon Ed Massey to either represent the Republican platform or leave the Republican Party."

Roberts has ties to white supremacists.

It's true Roberts met with neo-Nazi Richard Spencer and referenced an antisemitic conspiracy. But he told The Enquirer those experiences from years ago are part of a "smear campaign" against him and he is not a racist or antisemitic.

"I resent that not because of what it does to me. I resent that because of what it does to communities in Kentucky where it creates a culture of fear that people are now worried that there are members of their political class who hate them based on immutable characteristics," he said. "I heavily lament the fact that that's becoming a talking point in this race. I think that's wrong. I think it's just scoring cheap political points off of the fear of other people."

Roberts provided The Enquirer with apparent messages that show he has admonished people online for spouting white supremacist ideas.

He admitted to shaking hands and sitting with well-known neo-Nazi Richard Spencer. He said he used the chance to disagree with him about his ideas.

In the Facebook message to someone, Roberts used internet slang to say he is not on the side of Jewish people.

"I'm a religious Christian and quite frankly I'm sick of them promoting white genocide," he wrote, referencing the false conspiracy that there's a plan to eliminate the white race.

He told The Enquirer he was not linking Jewish people to that idea and his acknowledgment of a conspiracy does not mean he supports it. He said he doesn't.

"Obviously, I wish I had worded this better in order to have conveyed my sarcasm better for third-party readers. I stand by my statement that this conversation is entirely out of context and is being used to convey beliefs that I do not hold now, nor have I ever held," he said.

Massey refused to impeach Democrat Gov. Andy Beshear.

True.
In 2021, several members of the public petitioned to impeach Beshear because of his COVID-19 lockdown policies, The Courier-Journal reported.

Massey, along with about half a dozen lawmakers, was appointed by House leadership to an impeachment committee that looked into the issue.

The committee heard from two experts who, Massey said, told members there was no "history or precedent or basis for us to impeach the governor and to do so would be basically a simple political action but nothing with illegal substance or legal gravity that it would be upheld." Along with advice from counsel, the group unanimously voted to not impeach Beshear, according to reporting from The Courier-Journal.

Roberts has not always been a Republican and didn't support Donald Trump in 2016.

The first accusation is true. The second is partially true.

"I registered libertarian when I was 17 years old. Then, when I was 19, I figured it was time to quit being a teenager. Then I registered Republican," Roberts told The Enquirer.

He also supported Kentucky U.S. Senator Rand Paul's 2016 presidential bid before the candidate dropped out of the race. Then, he said, he supported Trump.

"I have voted for Trump in the past, intend to do so this May and this November," he said.

St Henry Crusaders football gets underway year ahead of schedule

The newly formed St. Henry High School football team held its first practice April 23. Photo provided | St. Henry Athletics

The St. Henry High School football team held its first-ever practice April 23 at the school. The Crusaders have a football team for the first time under coach Tim Odom, who played prep football at Cincinnati Moeller and college ball at Ohio State.

St. Henry planned on a 2026 start for football, but it moved up the timeline to 2025 due to the interest it generated. St. Henry starts middle school and junior varsity football this year.

Odom previously coached in the Cincinnati area at Moeller, Glen Este and Lakota West. He was head coach at Simon Kenton from 1990-94, and he led the program to its first playoff victory in 1993.

Norse make splash with first swim coach, 3-year Barton vet

New NKU swimming coach Kevin Woodhull-Smith once qualified for the U.S. Olympic trials. Photo provided | NKU athletics

NKU hired its first swimming coach April 25, selecting Kevin Woodhull-Smith as men's and women's head coach. Woodhull-Smith was previously head men's and women's swimming coach at Barton College in North Carolina for three years.

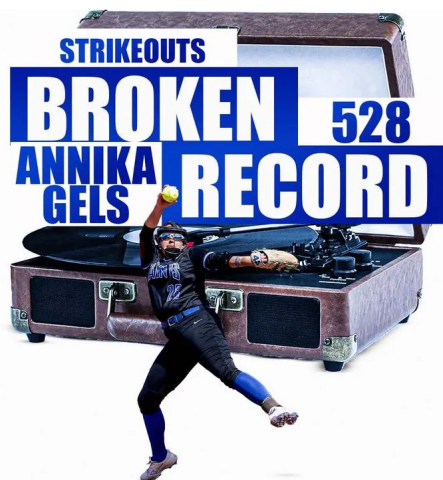

He was Conference Carolinas coach of the year three times, both men's and women's coach of the year in 2022 and women's coach of the year in 2021. He led his teams to one conference championship, a women's title in 2021 and three runner-up finishes.

Woodhull-Smith's swimmers broke more than 25 Barton school records and totaled over 100 all-time top-8 performances. Before Barton, Woodhull-Smith was an assistant at East Carolina University for eight years.

Woodhull-Smith graduated from North Carolina State in 2010. He lettered four seasons for the nationally-ranked Wolfpack and qualified for the Olympic Trials in the 200-meter individual medley in 2008.

The swimming, triathlon and stunt teams will join the Norse varsity sports lineup during the 2024-25 academic year. Men's volleyball will be added the following year.

Thomas More's Gels smashes softball strikeout record

Pitcher Annika Gels is an all-time fan favorite at Thomas More University. Photo provided | TMU athletics

Thomas More University fifth-year pitcher Annika Gels is the softball program's new career strikeout leader with 533. She surpassed former record-holder Alix DeDreu, who struck out 527 batters from 2016-19. Gels, second-team all-Mid South Conference last season in Thomas More's final year in NAIA, entered the Saints' first year in NCAA Division II ranked sixth in strikeouts.

She moved inexorably to the top, breaking the record April 26 by fanning four in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference loss to Trevecca Nazarene. Gels has struck out a career-best 148 batters this season.

Saints softball coach secures win No. 400

Thomas More University softball coach Lindsay Eagan earned her 400th career victory with a Saints sweep of a double-header against Ursuline on April 13. Eagan, the softball program's all-time victory leader, is in her 16th season as head coach at Thomas More.

Eagan set a program single-season record with 36 wins her first year in 2009. She put together four straight 30-win seasons from 2016-19. The Saints closed the weekend with a record of 15-35 in their first season in NCAA Division II.

Hall brings Dayton's girls hoops program 31 years' experience

After coaching 31 years, mainly at the middle school level, Laura Hall will take her experience to the Dayton High School girls basketball program.

Hall was named the new head coach recently, replacing Dave Hinton after he spent the last three seasons as head coach of the Lady Devils. Hinton amassed a 24-63 record over those three seasons.

On top of the experience, Hall brings a pedigree of multiple undefeated seasons, numerous Northern Kentucky Middle School Athletic Association championships and is a graduate of Dayton High School with the Class of 1986.

Dayton finished 8-21 last year. Their last season above .500 came during the 2018-19 season when Jeff Trunick was the head coach. The Lady Devils will graduate just two seniors, one of them being leading scorer Zoe Sparks. They return five of seven players that played in at least 23 games this past season.

Fields, with plate full, leaves Dixie boys head coaching job

Dixie Heights High School's Chad Fields loves teaching history at his alma mater. He loves coaching Dixie Heights student-athletes, and he loves his family. As his children get older and family and school schedules become more crowded, though, something had to give.

The Dixie Heights boys basketball coach needed to make a tough decision. The 1998 Dixie grad made that decision April 24: Fields stepped aside as head of the boys basketball program after two seasons.

Two years ago, Fields, a longtime assistant, took over a Dixie Heights program that was losing eight seniors, including four of its top five scorers. The Colonels made it to the 9th Region tournament championship game before losing to Covington Catholic in coach Roddy Stainforth's final year. They finished 22-7. Stainforth, a Dixie classmate of Fields', resigned after the season to concentrate on school administrator duties as assistant principal. He's now the Dixie Heights principal.

The Colonels finished 7-18 with just four seniors in Fields' first season but showed well late. They won four of their final seven regular-season games, including a double-overtime classic at Cooper that gave them momentum for the next season.

Dixie Heights more than doubled its win total in Fields' second year with winning marks across the board. The Colonels finished the 2023-24 schedule with a record of 18-14. They were 10-9 against 9th Region opponents and 4-2 versus 34th District foes. Dixie lost by just two points to Lloyd in the district final. The Colonels made the region tournament after its first absence in 22 years and lost to CovCath by two in the first round.

Senior Hudson Blank, a key catalyst for the Colonels in Fields' two seasons at the helm, is graduating. Second-leading scorer Griffin Derry, second-leading rebounder Max Rubemeyer and fellow starter Owen Niehues are expected to return.

Fields teaches Advanced Placement U.S. history and is head of the Dixie Heights social studies department.

Fields' departure creates a second opening for a 9th Region head boys basketball coach after Holmes recently filled the position with Sam Elsbernd. Boone County is also looking for a new coach after Nathan Browning headed over to coach district foe Conner.
